"Adams Chronicles" To Be Filmed at Ochre Court

Ochre Court will be the setting for a segment of "The Adams Chronicles," an educational television series produced by WNET – TV Channel 13, New York. A film crew and approximately 30 professional actors will be on hand from August 13th – 15th for the video taping at Salve.

A federally funded project tied in with the nation's Bicentennial, "The Adams Chronicles" consists of thirteen one-hour prime-time episodes covering several generations of the Adams Family. Portions of the series (scheduled for broadcast in January 1976) were filmed at other Newport locales earlier this summer.

Michael Dasovich to Head Management Department

Newporter Captain Michael Dasovich joined Salve Regina College August 4th as Chairman of the Management Department.
