In Memory of . . .

Helen Sullivan Burke

The staff and Board of Directors of the Newport Historical Society were very saddened by the death of Helen Burke on October 10, 1999. Helen was a dedicated member of the Newport Historical Society, and one of our original Walking Tours guides. For more than fifteen years, Helen guided visitors to Newport through our historic streets, sharing her vast wealth of knowledge with wonderful precision, clarity, and geniality. Helen also volunteered her time as a tour guide at the Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House and at the Museum of Newport History at the Brick Market. A familiar face at many of our events, and a loyal friend and volunteer, Helen Burke will be sorely missed by all.
