FACULTY NEWS

Our best wishes are extended to Dennis Hill as he leaves to assume a new position at Charlton Memorial Hospital in Fall River. Dennis has been our competent, unflappable assistant dean of faculty and graduate studies for the past seven years. During this time, Dennis has also taught psychology on the graduate and undergraduate levels.

At Charlton Memorial Dennis will be the Educational Coordinator responsible for the development and implementation of a management and supervisory training curriculum as well as actual instruction. He assumes his new position Monday, February 1.

Again, best wishes, good luck and success, Dennis! We'll miss you.

On Monday, January 25, Sister Elizabeth McAuliffe presented a paper on Critical Thinking to administrators and faculty of selected Indianapolis schools and to staff members of the Institute for the Development of Educational Activities (I/D/E/A). The meeting was held in Indianapolis, and the purpose of the meeting was to provide in-service opportunities, assisting faculty and staff members in improving critical thinking skills among their respective students and colleagues.

Brother Victor Hickey, Chairperson of the Department of Education, accepted an invitation from the State Commissioner of Education, Arthur Pontarelli, to serve as a member of the Commissioner's Advisory Board on the Education of Gifted and Talented Students; the Board is in the process of being formed. Brother Victor will be one of the two members on the Advisory Board representing the colleges and universities of Rhode Island.

Sister M. Therese Antone, Vice President/Institutional Advancement, is attending a Law and Higher Education Conference sponsored by Stetson University Law School in St. Petersburg, Florida. The Conference dates are January 24-27, 1982.

Jay Lacouture will serve as a juror for the Rhode Island Regional Scholastic Art Awards on Monday, February 1. Works will be selected to represent the State in the National Scholastic Art Exhibition held in New York City. All secondary school students are eligible to submit art work for jurying. For further information contact Jay Lacouture, Ext. 379.

COLLEGE HEALTH SERVICES

Please note that in addition to our regular staff, we are pleased to announce our affiliation with Dr. Terence Mulvany, a Family Practitioner from Newport. Dr. Mulvany has agreed to serve as our School Physician and will see members of the College Community by appointment in his office at 3 Kay Street, telephone 849-6852. In addition to this, he will be on campus at C.H.S. on Monday and Tuesday mornings from 8:30 - 9:30 am to see people who have been sick over the weekend. The on campus visits are provided free of charge to you, so please utilize this service, and come to the office early so that you will be able to be seen. If you are taken to the Emergency Room at Newport Hospital and do not have a local physician, you may request that Dr. Mulvany be called.

If your condition requires the advice and/or care of an orthopedic surgeon, you may request the services of Dr. Edwin Singsen who also has agreed to work with us. His office is located at 24 Kay Street, Newport, telephone 846-0848.

BLOOD DRIVE

College Health Services shall hold its next Blood Drive on Wednesday, February 3, 1982. It will be held from 10 am - 3 pm in O'Hare Academic Center in the student lounge. We are hoping for a large turnout of volunteers. Please do not disappoint us.

ATTENTION EDUCATION/SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENTS

Students in Education and/or Special Education, who desire to follow the Observation/Practicum or Student Teaching program in the fall of 1982 must complete and file their applications on or before Tuesday, February 2. If a student plans to follow a program in both Elementary/Secondary and Special Education, an application must be completed for each program.

Applications for Elementary/Secondary Education may be picked up at the bulletin board outside Sr. Corinne's office (Room 205 - Angelus) and returned to Sr. Corinne when completed. Applications for Special Education may be picked up outside Sr. Kathryn's Office (Room 206 - Angelus) and should be returned to Sr. Kathryn when completed.

SPORTS SCENE

Exercise

The Physical Education Department is offering "Exercise Sessions" for all employees of the college. The sessions are designed to meet the needs of individuals who usually do not have the time to exercise. The college administration recognizes the value of exercise and fitness and encourages members of the college community to participate in this program. The exercise sessions are offered at no cost to the participants.

The sessions are: Tuesday and Thursday - 4:15 to 5:00 pm
 February 2 to April 29, 1982
 Bottom Floor - Ochre Court
 Instructor: Louise Turilli

For further information, call the Physical Education Office, Ext. 329.
