"EDUCATION VIA RADIO" SPOTLIGHTS HISTORICAL NEWPORT'S WEALTHY SUMMER RESIDENTS

Wealthy summer residents from Newport's gilded past, are the subjects of the upcoming "Education via Radio" program Wednesday, February 24, at 9 a.m. on WADK, radio 1540.

The unique lives of Astor, Belmont, Oelrichs and James Gordon Bennett -- individuals who spent millions on palatial "summer cottages" only to spend very little time in them, will be discussed by guests Monique Panaggio and Betsy Matthews. Panaggio is the director of public relations for Newport's Preservation Society, and Betsy is a senior at Salve.

ALCOHOL WORKSHOP

The Criminal Justice Department will sponsor two workshops on alcohol during the Spring Semester, 1982. Titled "Alcohol Dependence: Issues and Perspectives," each workshop will run for two days. Students will be awarded one (1) academic credit upon successful completion of the workshop. Mr. James Carleton is the instructor.

Dates and times are as follows:

Session I - Saturday and Sunday, March 27, 28, 1982
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Session II - Saturday and Sunday, April 3, 4, 1982
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Registration forms are available in the Criminal Justice Department on the bulletin board outside room 103.

Enrollment is limited so early registration is suggested. Registration forms should be completed and returned to any member of the Criminal Justice Department.

There is no charge for this workshop.
