1982 HONORS CONVOCATION

The Honorable Governor J. Joseph Garrahy will be present at the 1982 Honors Convocation Saturday, May 1 at Salve Regina - The Newport College.

Over 700 people are expected to attend the event, held annually to recognize and honor Salve students who have excelled in leadership, scholarship and service to others.

This year, approximately 150 students will receive awards from academic departments and College organizations, for outstanding scholarship, Who's Who Among Students, and Honor Society membership. In addition, college-wide service awards will be given to outstanding members of the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes.

This year's valedictory address will be presented by Mary Beth Cordeiro, a resident of Westport, Mass. Mary Beth, an elementary education major with a minor in psychology, achieved a grade point average of 3.99 out of a possible 4.0.

Sister Lucille McKillop will name the 1982 recipient of the Salve Scholarship. This scholarship is awarded annually to the sophomore or junior having the highest grade point average and covers full tuition costs for one year.

This year's Honors Convocation will be held on the terrace of Ochre Court. In case of inclement weather the Convocation will be held at Spruance Auditorium at the Naval War College.

SISTER SHEILA ADDRESSES NAVAL CHAPLAINS

Sister Sheila Megley addressed the Senior Advanced Class Naval Chaplains on Monday, April 26. The title of Sister's talk was: "The Role of Women in Society."

In the afternoon Sister Sheila chaired a panel discussion which addressed the topic: "The Role of Women in the Military." The members of the all women panel were from the Navy and Marine Corps officers and enlisted personnel. Sister's presentations were extremely well received.

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT

Special Education and Elementary Education Seniors!!!

The Career Planning and Placement Office has recently received a number of current teacher vacancy notices from school departments around the country. These notices are being sent to us in response to our recent request, and we anticipate receiving many more in the next few weeks.

Stop by the office soon and browse through the book. You might just find what you're looking for!

Attention Seniors!!!

What shape are your credentials in? If you have not yet completed a CREDENTIAL FILE, pick up the forms in the Career Planning and Placement Office. Most employers and graduate schools require this information. The credential file contains references, personal information and a list of the courses you have completed. Don't put it off! DO IT TODAY!

Resumes - Interviews = JOBS!!!

Preparing a well-thought-out resume is the first step in conducting a successful job search. The first steps are often the hardest . . . Don't delay . . . make an appointment today . . . O'Hare, Room 121.
