EDUCATION VIA RADIO

Newport's Redwood Library, the nation's oldest library still operating in its original building, is the subject of the upcoming "Education via Radio" program Wednesday, December 22, from 9 to 10 a.m. on WADK, radio 1540. Donald T. Gibbs, head librarian at Redwood, is the scheduled guest. The program is sponsored by the College in cooperation with WADK.

Redwood Library was founded and built in 1748 under the direction of architect Peter Harrison who later designed Brick Market and Touro Synagogue. It was named after one of its founders, Quaker merchant Abraham Redwood who donated 500 pounds British sterling toward its construction. The Doric temple-style building has a rustic stone look, however the "stone" is actually wood. It was enlarged in 1858 when a reading room was added.

FACULTY NEWS

The Special Education Department would like to wish Sr. Kathryn Murphy, Chairman of the Department, the best of luck on her sabbatical in Arizona. We will miss her and will look forward to her return in June.
