

Salve Regina University

Digital Commons @ Salve Regina

Newsbulletin

Archives and Special Collections

11-18-1983

Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 4

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 4" (1983). Newsbulletin. 329.
<https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/329>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 14 No. 4

November 18, 1983

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, November 27 marks the beginning of President's Week, a week of special events honoring Sister Lucille's decade of outstanding leadership at Salve.

A Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated on Sunday at 4:00 p.m. for all Religious members of the Salve Community. The McKillop Gallery will be dedicated to Sister Lucille on Monday, November 28 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. at Mercy Hall. Later that evening Sister Lucille will dine with College Administrators. The Student Body will honor Sister Lucille Tuesday evening followed by a College Staff reception on Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. An Academic Convocation for Faculty and Educational Leaders will be held on Thursday at 7:00 p.m.; Sister Lucille will be the guest of honor. The week culminates with the Governor's Ball on Saturday evening, December 3 at 9:00 p.m. This year's Ball takes on a special focus as the Salve Community celebrates Sister Lucille's tenth year as College President.

It is with heartfelt gratitude and affection that the Salve Community pauses to honor Sister Lucille.

* * *

The Art Department will be holding the dedication of its new gallery on Monday, November 28 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. in Mercy Hall. The McKillop Gallery will be dedicated to President Sister Lucille McKillop in honor of her tenth year of service and will be a testimony to her support of the visual and performing arts. Jay Lacouture, Chairman of the Art

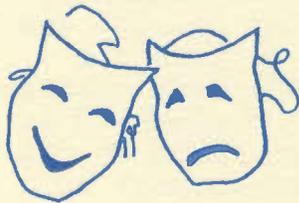

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Department, stated, "Through her commitment to the true spirit of a liberal arts environment, Sister Lucille has continued to support the visual and performing arts in a real way. She has given the faculty support both in terms of resources and her confidence. The McKillop Gallery will serve as a reflection of her continued commitment by bringing outstanding art exhibits to the College and community. It is our privilege to help commemorate Sister Lucille's decade at Salve by dedicating our gallery in her name."

The McKillop Gallery will feature work by both regional and nationally recognized artists in various media. The inaugural exhibition includes the work of the Salve Art Department faculty: ceramics by Jay Lacouture, Brother Ralph Bucci, Belinda Gabryl; graphics and environmental design concepts by Richard Carbotti; paintings by Sister Arlene Woods and William Reis and photographs by Angelo Marinosci. Also exhibited will be photographs, "The Four Seasons of Salve," by Joseph Souza, the proceeds from which will be donated to the Salve Regina College scholarship fund.

The gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The exhibit will continue through December 5.

* * *

The Newport College Theatre Company will be presenting the musical comedy Stop the World-I Want to Get Off, tonight at 8:00 p.m. in Little Theatre, Mercy Hall. The eight member cast has been singing, dancing and perfecting their stage techniques in preparation for the production since September 19th. Cast members include senior Doug Bowden and junior Wendy Coelho. Appearing in supporting roles are Jackie Byrne and Carol Battersby. The ensemble includes Ron Anderson, Magda Skomal, Ginger Lavoie and Ellen Rinaldi. Tickets will be sold at the door. Admission is $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for students. The production runs until November 20th. Come and be entertained while supporting the Newport College Theatre Company!

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

United Way Campaign: Overwhelming Success

"We are closing our United Way Campaign on the most successful campaign ever conducted at the College," states College campaign Chairman, Dr. William Burrell. On Monday with more returns due, cash gifts and pledges total $7,622.50. Now we can realistically project a 25% increase over last year's campaign. All the campaign workers and contributors deserve congratulations for this overwhelmingly successful campaign, according to Dr. Burrell, who promises a final report to the College community when all returns are completed.

* * *

A note of sincere thanks from Sister M. Therese Antone to the many faculty and staff members who have contributed to Salve's 1983-84 Gateway Association. (If you are still planning to take advantage of the payroll deduction plan, there are 15 payperiods left in this fiscal year.)

* * *

The Career Planning and Placement Office is sponsoring a Nursing Career Day on Wednesday, November 30th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Pell Building. Representatives from more than 30 hospitals, medical agencies and nursing care centers will be present. Between 10:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. recruiters will have displays set up in the Pell Building and will be available to discuss employment opportunities with all students. Those hospitals that have indicated an interest in conducting interviews will do so between 2:00 and 4:00 p.m.

The Nursing Career Day is not only for seniors. Other students may wish to discuss summer job opportunities, internships and other employment concerns. All those interested in the nursing field are urged to attend. Enthusiastic support will benefit future on-campus recruitment of Salve students. For more information contact the Career Planning and Placement Office at ext. 280.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo, Professor of Chemistry, presented a lecture at the chemical seminar sponsored by the New England Association of Independent Chemical Laboratories. The three day seminar was held at the Biltmore Hotel in Providence, October 28-30.

* * *

Sister Arlene Woods of the Art Department is showing a work, "Der Blindflug," at an exhibition, "Words at an Exhibition: Images in Ink," at the Walters Gallery in Weston, Massachusetts.

* * *

Ms. Janet Kenty and Ms. Susan Rush Michael of the Nursing Department are creating a program entitled, "Health Promotion in the 80's." They were recently approached to present the course to IBM employees and will make the course available in the future to other interested groups.

* * *

Mary DeMarino Lavin was recently elected as Vice President of District One of the Rhode Island State Nurses Association.

* * *

Dr. Maria Ceprano, a visiting professor of education at Salve Regina College will be presenting a micro-workshop at the New York State Reading Association Annual Conference being held at Kiamesha Lake, New York on November 8th and 9th. The micro-workshop pertains to methods for extending content area concepts through children's literature.

* * *

Dr. Jack Childs, in cooperation with the Salve Regina Bookstore, announces the availability of a unique selection of audio tapes. The cassettes include tapes on healing, auto-suggestion related to test and learning anxieties, and deep relaxation and music from other cultures such as Ireland and Japan.

* * *

The deadline for submitting items into the next Newsbulletin will be Friday, November 25 at 11:30 a.m.