

Salve Regina University

Digital Commons @ Salve Regina

Newsbulletin

Archives and Special Collections

12-16-1983

Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 6

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 6" (1983). Newsbulletin. 331.
<https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/331>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 14 No. 6

December 16, 1983

ANNOUNCEMENTS

It's that time of year again! The Salve Children's Christmas Party will be held on Sunday, December 18 from 1:30-3:30 p.m. in Ochre Court. Christmas songs, a Magic Man, Santa's Workshop and refreshments are just part of the fun. Children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and God-children of Salve personnel, ages one month and older, are invited to join in this festive celebration.

United Way Campaign: "Overwhelming Success!" The final total on the College United Way Campaign is $7,943.50, an increase over the 1982 campaign by 29%. Dr. William Burrell, College Campaign Chairman, thanks Karen Johnson, the 23 campaign workers, and especially the 219 contributors from the College community for the overwhelming success of this year's campaign.

* * *

A figure skating exhibition featuring the Salve Regina Ice Cadettes was held Thursday, December 15 at the St. George's ice skating rink. Participants included seniors - Julie Desmond, Eileen Fagan, Joan Sapienza, and Tyla Thibodeau; sophomore - Mary Elizabeth Begg and freshmen - Laura Degenaro, Karen Furaro and Colleen Quinn.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Salve Regina Chorus, under the direction of Brother James Loxham, will perform in concert on Sunday, December 18th as part of the "Advent Evensong and Concert" program. The concert will be held in Holy Cross Church, 645 Hartford Avenue, Providence. For further information contact Brother James at ext. 381.

* * *

Broaden your Oriental horizons with a three week tour of Japan and China beginning on July 1-22. Sister Ann Nelson has organized a tour of the Orient which includes excursions to Japan's bustling metropolis of Tokyo, the serenity of Kamakura and Kyoto. Sites you will visit include the world-famous Ginza and the Imperial Palace. In China you will visit the legendary Forbidden City, The Great Wall and the Ming Tombs.

Air fares, tours, lodging and most meals are packaged for you for only $2990.00. There are still 15 openings available. If you are interested in joining the tour or want further information please contact Sister Ann Nelson at ext. 303.

* * *

A holiday wine and cheese meeting was held Wednesday, November 30th, for the members of the Council for Exceptional Children. Members were asked to sign up for committees during this general meeting. However, help is still needed in the following areas: publicity, Newsletter, and the T-shirt and high school C.E.C. Club. If you could not attend the meeting but are interested in getting involved please contact Suzanne Landers, 846-7912.

* * *

The officers of the Council for Exceptional Children recently met with Rhode Island College's C.E.C. officers and Washington based S.C.E.C. activities director, Mary Kemper, for a wine and cheese gathering followed by dinner at the S.S. Newport. It was an enjoyable evening during which topics such as the National Convention, communication between state and student chapters, as well as involvement of both R.I.C. and Salve Chapters were discussed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Officers attending were Suzanne Landers, co-president; Joyce Pfitzenmaier, co-president; Carol Mis, Governor; Joan Bujold, treasurer; Sandy Dutra, secretary; Carol Schabb, membership; Katie Turner, membership; Tricia Farley, publicity and advisor Mrs. Kathryn Rok.

* * *

Registration information (schedule and forms) will be made available the first week in January, 1984. Registration will take place from January 12th to the 20th. Further detailed information on spring registration will be forthcoming.

* * *

Rhode Island Family Court Judge William R. Goldberg spoke last Wednesday evening at O'Hare Academic Center. Judge Goldberg spoke about the structure of the Family Court system and the processing of juvenile offenders. The informative lecture was sponsored by the Criminal Justice Club.

* * *

Ochre Court was the site of the seventh annual Salve Regina College Governor's Ball Saturday, December 3rd. More than 400 attendees including the Governor and Mrs. J. Joseph Garrahy and Senator and Mrs. Claiborne Pell, danced and mingled in the elegant, seasonal surroundings. One of the evening's highlights was provided by the College's Concert Choir. The group offered several Christmas selections. Sister Lucille was then honored by Governor Garrahy and the College's Board of Trustees.

The Ball was the final event in a week-long series of receptions, dinners and dedications which honored Sister Lucille during "President's Week." Funds raised from the Governor's Ball will supplement the College's financial aid program.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Dennis Robbins, Associate Professor of Health Services Administration, addressed the Rhode Island Nursing Leadership Council on November 21, 1983. His topic was, "Who's in charge of the terminally ill, incompetent patient?"

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Thomas Day of the Music Department composed two musical interludes which were performed at the Faculty Convocation in honor of Sister Lucille on December 1. These brief pieces for brass quintet and timpani are based on the "Salve Regina" (dorian mode).

* * *

Dr. Jack Childs, Professor of Human Development, and Diane Caplin, Director of the Academic Resource Center, presented programs at the Fall Conference of the College Personnel Association of Rhode Island held December 1st. Dr. Childs offered a presentation on "Holistic Counseling" which reviewed notions of general systems theory, while Diane presented a workshop on "Special Needs of Under-Prepared Students." Salve student affairs staff who participated included Dorothy Hillman, Director of Housing, and John Rok and Jan Gordon from Counseling Services.

* * *

Dr. Mary Louise Greeley, Chairman of the Biology and Biomedical Sciences Department recently participated in a panel discussion as the scientific resource person. This discussion was sponsored by the Aquidneck Island Clergy Association to discuss the political, physiological, and emotional effects of nuclear war. Dr. Greeley is both a researcher and author in the area of the effects of ionizing radiation and chemical carcinogens on the DNA of human and other mammalian cells.

* * *

Father Eugene Hillman, professor of Liberal Studies at Salve, has been invited by the President-Elect of the Catholic Theological Society of America to conduct a workshop on the central and perennial missionary question: how to present and express the one Christian faith in a culturally plural world?

The workshop will be held at Georgetown University during the annual convention of the Catholic Theological Society of America, June 12-16, 1984.

* * *

The deadline for submitting material for the next Newsbulletin is December 30, 11:30 a.m. There will be no Newsbulletin the week of the 26th due to Christmas break.

* * *

WISHING ALL A HAPPY AND HEALTHY HOLIDAY SEASON!

