

Salve Regina University

Digital Commons @ Salve Regina

---

Newsbulletin

Archives and Special Collections

---

4-27-1984

Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 14

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 14" (1984). Newsbulletin. 339.
<https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/339>

Rights Statement

In Copyright - Educational Use Permitted. URI: <http://rightsstatements.org/vocab/InC-EDU/1.0/>

This Item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this Item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. In addition, no permission is required from the rights-holder(s) for educational uses. For other uses, you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

---

NEWSBULLETIN

---

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 14. No. 14

April 27, 1984

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

The Newport College Theatre Company and the Newport School Department will host the 1984 New England High School Drama Festival to be held April 26, 27 and 28 in Newport.

Twelve high schools will be competing for top New England honors in acting and stage production. Each state is represented by two theatre groups.

An awards ceremony along with a buffet and reception at Ochre Court are part of the closing ceremonies. Actress Betty Hutton, most noted for her role in "Annie, Get Your Gun," will present the awards to the winning schools. Sister Lucille McKillop and Governor Garrahy are also scheduled to attend.

Bernard Masterson, chairman of Salve's theatre department is vice president of the New England Drama Council and this year's festival chairman.

We ask all students, faculty and staff to extend a warm welcome to the hundreds of students and parents who will be visiting Salve's campus. Thank you for your support!

* * *

An Open House for the Graduate Studies Program will be held on Sunday, April 29 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in Ochre Court.

Visitors to the College will have the opportunity to acquaint themselves with all the information concerning the pursuit of a master of arts or a master of science degree.

Faculty and administrators will provide information on admission and degree requirements, veteran's assistance, part-time attendance and specifics of the

OPEN HOUSE

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

five master's programs.

The graduate programs offered are Administration of Justice, Health Services Administration, International Relations, Liberal Studies and Human Development which offers concentrations in management, holistic counseling and gerontology.

Light refreshments will be served during the afternoon. All are welcome to attend and should contact Kate Horan, assistant director of admissions at ext. 233 for further information.

* * *

College Counseling Services and College Health Services are co-sponsoring a series of programs and activities during "Mental Health and Physical Fitness Week" scheduled for April 30 - May 4. Students, faculty and staff will be offered a variety of events including aerobic exercise workshops, colorectal cancer screening tests, musical performances, "pinch tests" for body fat content, and displays of free literature. A brochure listing a schedule of all activities with dates, locations and times will be available at the beginning of "Health and Fitness Week."

* * *

There will be a Living Rosary followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday, April 29 at 2:00 p.m. at the Columban Fathers in Bristol, R.I. In case of rain the event will take place across the street at Roger Williams College. The Most Reverend George H. Pearce, S.M. and Reverend Raymond McNicholas will be presiding. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring the event.

* * *

Salve will be holding Reunion Weekend '84, an annual event designed for all Salve alumni, from Friday, May 4 to Sunday, May 6.

Numerous activities are planned for the weekend including a cocktail party on Friday evening, followed by a New England Clamboil on the Wakehurst grounds on Saturday. A dinner-dance will be held that night in the Great Hall of Ochre Court.

The weekend's festivities draw to a close on Sunday with a brunch at the Sheraton Islander followed by a piano concert in Ochre Court. The piano recital is part of the "Concerts at Ochre Court" series. Rosalind Chua is the scheduled artist. A graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Miss Chua has performed extensively in the Orient, Europe and the United States. She is presently the chairperson of the music department at Providence College.

The Concert begins at 2:30 p.m. and is open to the public. Admission is free, but a donation is requested. For further information about the concert call ext. 242.

* * *

Salve is sponsoring a lecture on East-West Accord and the nuclear issue on Wednesday, May 9 at 8:00 p.m. in the TB room in O'Hare Academic Center. The distinguished guest speaker is four-star Admiral Noel Gayler, USN (Ret.). Admiral Gayler's speech is entitled, "The Way Out: A General Nuclear Settlement."

Admiral Gayler currently heads the "General Nuclear Settlement"

---

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

project for the American Committee on East-West Accord, a non-profit institution devoted to reducing the danger of nuclear war and developing a more realistic and pragmatic relationship with the U.S.S.R.

Wednesday's lecture is sponsored through a gift from the family of Sister James O'Hare, R.S.M., a former dean of Salve Regina.

The lecture is open to the public; admission is free. For further information call ext. 208.

* * *

On Saturday, May 5, all students, faculty and staff are invited to participate in the CROP walk for the world's hungry. Participants will walk the ten-mile Ocean Drive. They will be seeking others to sponsor them for each mile they walk.

A portion of the money collected will help the hungry of Newport, Middletown and Portsmouth. The remainder will support projects to overcome hunger throughout the world.

Interested participants will gather at Emmanuel Church in Newport at 10:00 a.m. for departure. Anyone willing to participate should contact Sister Prudence Croke in O'Hare, room 205, ext. 335 for further information.

CROP is the name given to local community efforts at hunger and fund raising for the Church World Service.

* * *

On April 1 a brunch sponsored by the Medical Technology Club was held at the Sheraton Islander. All medical technology students and biology majors were invited. The event was enjoyable and provided a welcome break in the structured academic schedule.

* * *

During a typical year, an estimated 7,400 fires occur in institutions of higher education in the U.S., with monetary losses estimated at more than $19 million.

Fire safety is not a matter of academic intelligence, safety programs, or protective equipment; it is an attitude.

Help make Salve Regina College "Fire Safe!!"

* * *

---

FACULTY

---

Dr. Jack Childs participated in a four-day workshop at Interface, Newton, Mass. in Hakomi, or body psychology, a form of psychotherapy.

Dr. Childs also spoke to the Aquidneck Island Chapter of Business and Professional Women on holistic health at a recent dinner meeting.

* * *

---

FACULTY

---

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo, professor of chemistry, recently served on the panel to evaluate high school science projects for the summer internship award for the Ciba-Geigy Corporation.

* * *

The chemistry faculty is pleased to announce that Miss Rochelle Belisle will receive the chemistry award from the American Institute of Chemists at the meeting of the Massachusetts Institute of Chemists on April 26.

* * *

John Rok, director of counseling services, attended the annual convention of the American College Personnel Association in Baltimore from April 7-11. Mr. Rok served as Salve's representative at the convention.

* * *

Sister Prudence Croke will be a Visiting Scholar at Weston School of Theology in Cambridge, Mass. for the 1984-85 academic year. As a Visiting Scholar, Sister Prudence will be invited to participate in the Faculty Colloquia held three times a semester. It will also give her access to the nine schools and libraries in the Boston Theological Institute.

* * *

Dr. Mary Louise Greeley has successfully completed a workshop on Computer-Assisted Education in Clinical Laboratory Science. This workshop which was sponsored by the Massachusetts Association of Medical Technologists was held April 6, 1984 at Sturbridge, Mass. During the workshop, Dr. Greeley wrote a program on Iron Deficiency Anemias which the Medical Technology students at the College will use during the Fall 1984 semester.

* * *

---

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

---

The College recently received a Silver Award for the success of its 1983 United Way Campaign. The Silver Award is given to Employee Groups in which 75% or more of the employees contribute and the per capita gift is between $20 and $44. Congratulations Salve!!

* * *

---

SPORTS

---

The Salve athletic teams are having a very successful season. The women's softball team recently beat the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. The baseball team trounced NAPS and split a pair against St. Joseph's. The men's tennis team played its first match of the season, beating Anna Maria College.

The Intramural Volleyball Tournament is in its third week with 60 men in 6 teams and 150 women in 18 teams participating.

* * *

NEXT NEWSBULLETIN DEADLINE: 11:30 a.m. Friday, May 4