

5-11-1984

Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 15

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 14, no. 15" (1984). newsbulletin. 340.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/340>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

NEWSBULLETIN

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

Vol. 14 No. 15

May 11, 1984

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Fifth Annual Newport County Olympics will be held on Saturday, May 12 at the Salve Regina College Track. The program will begin at 1:00 p.m. For the fifth consecutive year the Fund Raising Committee has generated over $2,500 in financial support for the Olympics. This fifth anniversary promises to be the best to date. Everyone is invited to join in the excitement and festivities on May 12!!

* * *

Salve's Music Department will present soprano soloist Nancy Hallas in concert on Friday, May 11 at 8:00 p.m. in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court. The concert is free and open to the public.

Ms. Hallas, a veteran of 700 concert dates, has been heard in recitals, oratorios, opera and chamber music throughout the U.S. She has performed at Carnegie Hall several times, debuting there in 1962. Formerly from Fall River, Mass., Ms. Hallas now resides in Portsmouth, R.I.

Accompanying Ms. Hallas will be Marian Van Slyke, former Salve music director.

* * *

The Office of College Activities will present an evening of "Jazz at Ochre Court" on Saturday, May 12 at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court.

Music will be provided by Matthew Quinn, piano; Herbie King, drums; and Richard Haddock, bass. Also appearing is vocalist Beryl Powers plus a special surprise guest soloist. Complimentary cheese, fruit and crackers will be served in a cabaret setting.

Admission is $4.00 for the general public and $2.00 for students. Tickets will be sold at the door. For further information call Joan Whalen, ext. 332.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Salve students will be giving voice recitals on Sunday, May 13 at 7:30 p.m. in Ochre Court. The public is invited; admission is free.

* * *

The Education and Special Education Departments announced that the Annual Pre-Student Teaching Seminar will take place on May 16 at 8:00 p.m. in the Instructional Technology Center at Angelus Hall. Cooperating teachers and past student teachers will make up a panel that will allow for open discussion.

* * *

The Newport College Theatre Company will present an evening of "One-Act Plays" on Friday, May 18 and Saturday, May 19 in Little Theatre, Mercy Hall. The two scheduled one-act plays are Lawrence Osgood's "Pigeons" and Edward Albee's "Zoo Story."

Appearing in "Pigeons" are freshmen theatre majors Maggie Skomal and Ellen Rinaldi and senior Ellen Toole. Bernard Masterson, Theatre Department Chairman, is director.

The cast of "Zoo Story" includes theatre majors James Clancy, a freshman, and Doug Bowden, a senior. Gary Diomandes, a member of the faculty at La Salle Academy in Providence and winner of three state drama festivals, is guest director.

Curtain is at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $4.00 for general audience and $2.00 for students and senior citizens. Tickets may be purchased at the door or by phoning the Theatre Department at ext. 217.

* * *

The McKillop Gallery will present the work of eight graduating art students. The exhibition is entitled, "Images '84."

Paintings by Anne Gilson, Camilla Jahoda and Michelle Morency will be shown from Wednesday, May 9 to Tuesday, May 22. The opening reception will be held on Wednesday, May 9 at 7:30 p.m.

Communication Design artists Deanna Brancaccio, Vicki Clausman, Jackie Howard, Julia Timpanelli and Kevin Trainor will show their work from Wednesday, May 23 to Friday, June 1. The opening reception will be on May 23 at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome to attend!!

* * *

The Boathouse Pub & Cafe cordially invites all faculty, staff and students to a wine and cheese party on Thursday, May 24 from 3:00-6:00 p.m. Finish the last day of classes with a get together at the Boathouse.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The officers of the student chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children, along with advisor Kitty Rok and other Special Education majors, recently returned from the CEC International Convention in Washington, D.C. The trip provided an excellent learning experience for all those involved along with the opportunity to explore the historic city.

Officers that attended were: Suzanne Landers, co-president; Sandi Dutra, secretary; Joan Bujold, treasurer; Tricia Farley, publicity; Katie Turner and Carol Schabb, membership. Also in attendance were Pam Page, Karen Dobson, Jennifer Medeiros and Sherri Morin.

* * *

Sophomores Sara Choiniere, Martha Tortora and Dina Pedisich have been accepted to exchange programs for the 1984-1985 academic year.

Sara will be studying at Bishop's University in Lennoxville, Quebec. Martha has been accepted by Providence College for the year-in-Fribourg program. She will be living with a Swiss family while in school.

Dina has been accepted as an exchange student at Laval University, Quebec City. Before leaving for Canada in August, she will be spending time with her parents in Italy.

* * *

Salve student Brenda Nunes was inducted into the Salve Regina Chapter, Theta Eta, of the National French Honor Society at an official induction ceremony on Tuesday, April 24 in the Ochre Court Library.

The ceremony included a commentary by Gerard and Claude Aublet on the history and culture of France through art and architecture. A slide and film show accompanied the talk.

Following the commentary, students Mary Curley, Julie Desmond and Helen Garde gave an explanation of French symbolism. They discussed the significance of the motto - "fraternite, liberte, egalite" as well as the symbolism of the French flag. Mrs. Lucille Flanagan then presented the certificate of membership to Brenda.

The ceremony concluded with the singing of the French national anthem, "La Marseillaise."

* * *

The Anthropology Department is graduating its first major this semester, Debra Pires. Also graduating are three anthropology minors: Thomas Hastings III, Tracy Husband and Suzette Forest.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Norma Bailey has been accepted by the University of Birmingham to study Shakespearean drama and theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon, England. This summer program offers a unique opportunity to visit the natural settings for plays, to attend performances by the Royal Shakespeare Company, and to study the rare research materials in the Shakespeare Centre Library.

* * *

Dr. James Hersh of the Philosophy Department has been invited to present his paper, "From Ethnos to Polis: The Eumenides and Apollo," at the conference on Form and Spontaneity, (The Conference of Great Mother Earth) in Maine on June 19.

* * *

Sister Mary Smith, College archivist, recently attended the New England Archivists Conference at Brown University. The theme of the conference was "Archives and Local History."

* * *

Janet Kenty of the Nursing Department recently authored a computer assisted instructional program entitled, "Normal Labor, Delivery and Postpartum" for the Medical Examination Publishing Company of New York. This program is one of a series of computer assisted instructional tools created to foster clinical assessment and decision making skills in nursing students. This computer series is scheduled for publication within a year.

* * *

Dr. Arthur Frankel, a member of the Psychology Department, has been invited to join the editorial board of the Journal of Experimental Social Psychology. His duties involve the critical review of manuscripts submitted to the Journal. The editorial board presently consists of twenty-five members, mostly from large universities.

* * *

Jan Gordon, John Rok, Diane Caplin and Dorothy Hillman recently attended a spring conference of the College Personnel Association of Rhode Island at Roger Williams College. The conference was entitled, "The Greening of Higher Education: Personal and Professional Compacts." Topics discussed were Eating Disorders, Short-term Approaches for Counseling, the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, Working with Adolescents of Divorcing Parents, Humanistic Approach to Discipline, and Publishing. In addition, Dr. Frank Newman offered a presentation on the Greenhouse Compact and its possible effects on higher education.

* * *

ATTENTION '84 GRADUATES!! If you haven't filled out your hometown cards for newspaper publicity on your upcoming graduation, it's not too late. You have until Friday, May 18. Cards may be obtained from the Office of Public Relations, 3rd floor of Ochre Court.

NEXT NEWSBULLETIN DEADLINE: 11:30 a.m. on Friday, May 18.