

10-9-1986

Newsbulletin vol. 17, no. 4

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 17, no. 4" (1986). newsbulletin. 378.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/378>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE

NOV 5 1986

NEWSBULLETIN

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE LIBRARY
OCHRE POINT AVENUE
NEWPORT RHODE ISLAND 02840

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 200

Vol. 17 No. ^A

October 24, 1986

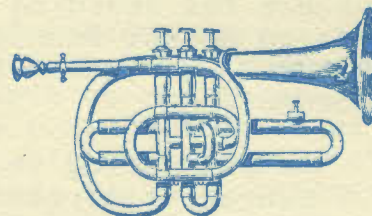

The O'Hare Lecture Series at Salve Regina will present its first lecture of the academic year with Reverend Christopher P. Brinckley on Thursday, October 30. The lecture, "El Salvador: The Forgotten War," will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the O'Hare Academic Center.

Reverend Brinckley, a Maryknoll Missionary, will discuss the roots of crisis in Central America, the questions about U.S. policy in the region and the role of the Catholic Church.

The O'Hare lecture is free of charge and open to the public.

* * *

NOON CONCERT SERIES

The Noon Concert Series at Salve Regina will present the Northeast Navy Band Brass Quintet on Wednesday, November 5. The concert will begin at 12:05 in Cecilia Hall which is located in Carey Mansion on Ruggles Avenue. Patrons are encouraged to bring a lunch. Coffee will be provided.

The Noon Concert Series is held on the first Wednesday of each month and is free of charge and open to the public. For information contact the Music Department at extension 445.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

McKILLOP
gallery

The McKillop Gallery at Salve Regina is currently featuring the "Rhode Island Clay Invitational" which will run through October 30. Five artists who live/and or work in Rhode Island were invited on the basis of their diverse approaches to the clay medium. Belinda Gabryl, part-time instructor of art at Salve Regina, is participating in the exhibition. In a review by John Pantalone, editor of NEWPORT THIS WEEK, he notes, "The most enjoyable pieces in the show are Gabryl's quirky little vessels from her 'Tornado' series and her stylized 'bas relief' tableaus. In each case she builds sprightliness into the slickly glazed pieces with an urgency of expression."

An upcoming exhibition at the McKillop Gallery will feature the artistic group "Nineteen Rhode Island Artists on Paper." The group was formed in order to show and market their diverse works on paper through exhibitions and portfolio presentations. Their exhibition at the McKillop Gallery will run from November 6 through December 11. An opening reception will be held in the gallery on Thursday, November 6 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The McKillop Gallery is located in Mercy Hall and is open Monday through Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

* * *

SALVE RECEIVES $20,000 GRANT

The Development Office at Salve Regina is pleased to announce the awarding of a grant to the College from the William Randolph Hearst Foundation, New York, N.Y., in the amount of $20,000. The grant will be applied toward funding scholarship endowment.

In announcing the grant to the College, Robert M. Frehse, Jr., Executive Director of the Hearst Foundation, noted, "Through the materials you provided and through the site visits at Newport, we have been very favorably impressed with the quality of education provided by Salve Regina and also the urgent need to continue to build your scholarship endowment."

* * *

SALVE ACCREDITATION

The Commission on Institutions of Higher Education has announced its acceptance of Salve Regina's fifth-year report thereby continuing the College's accreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEAS&C). NEAS&C performed a comprehensive evaluation of Salve Regina in 1981. The next scheduled comprehensive evaluation for accreditation will be in the spring of 1991.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Norma Bailey, Associate Professor of English, recently spoke before the Newport Writers Forum at the Public Library. Her topic was "The Importance of a Tightly Constructed Plot in a Short Story."

* * *

Dr. William Burrell, Vice-President/Dean of Faculty and Graduate Programs, has been appointed vice chairman of a United Way budget and allocation panel for agency programs in social development, informal education, and recreation.

* * *

Richard Carbotti, part-time instructor of art, has been recognized for the second time in "Town & Country" magazine (October '86) as one of America's foremost gala and special events designers. Mr. Carbotti, Design Director of Perfect Surroundings, Newport, R.I., has transformed spaces into glittering fantasies in several states for over one hundred national and international corporate and private clients.

This year, Mr. Carbotti and Perfect Surroundings were responsible for the design of the Washington 40th Anniversary CARE Ball chaired by Mrs. Nancy Reagan, as well as the International Polo Ball held in the atrium of the U.S. Department of Agriculture building. He was also involved with the planning of the R.I. 350 Grand Jubilee Ball held in Kennedy Plaza on October 18, and will be responsible for the design of Ochre Court for this year's Salve Regina College Governor's Ball to be held on December 6.

* * *

Dr. Thomas Day of the Music Department published an article entitled "An American Catholic Hymnal" in the October issue of The American Organist.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

Richard "Duke" Dukeshire, men's basketball coach and Gerri DiCamillo, women's and men's tennis coach, recently spoke at the Knights of Columbus Social in Jamestown. Topic of discussion was the ever improving and expanding Salve athletic program.

On Saturday, November 8, at 11:00 a.m. the men's varsity basketball team will give a clinic to 200 boys at the Newport County Y.M.C.A. This is an annual event and enjoyed by the players as well as the youth.

* * *

Dr. Laurel End, Assistant Professor of Psychology, has had an article she presented at the International Conference on Language and Thought held in Warsaw, 1984, appear in the Polish version of the volume entitled Knowledge and language: General psychology of language and neurolinguistics, Vol. 1.

* * *

Father Eugene Hillman, Professor of Liberal Studies, delivered one of two principal addresses at a conference on the proposed pastoral letters of the American Bishops on missions in Washington, D.C. The October 13-15 conference was attended by heads of religious orders, directors of propagation of the faith societies, university chaplains and other individuals concerned with missions. Father Hillman's address on "Christian Spirituality and the Global View of Christianity" is to be published in either the "National Catholic Reporter" or "America."

* * *

Sister Sheila Megley, Provost, was recently awarded a "certificate of recognition for outstanding service in the field of education" by St. Xavier College, Chicago, Ill. The award was presented during the College's Alumni Association Homecoming held October 11. Sister Sheila, a '68 master's graduate of St. Xavier, was one of five recipients of this award.

* * *

Rabbi Arnold Resnicoff, part-time instructor of religious studies and a 1986 graduate of the College, was the only chaplain selected to attend the recent superpowers summit in Iceland. Rabbi Resnicoff led the Sabbath services on Saturday and the Yom Kippur services on Sunday and Monday.

* * *

Deadline for the next NEWSBULLETIN is Friday, October 31.
Publication date is Thursday, November 6.