

10-27-1988

Newsbulletin vol. 19, no. 4

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 19, no. 4" (1988). newsbulletin. 407.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/407>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

VOL 19 ISSUE 4

October 27, 1988

CHARLESTON STRING QUARTET WILL PLAY AT NOON CONCERT SERIES

The award-winning Charleston String Quartet, from Brown University, will play in Cecilia Hall, at Carey Mansion, on Wednesday, November 2. The quartet features Charles Sherba and Lois Finkel on violin, Daniel Harp on cello and Consuelo Sherba on the viola. The Noon Concert is open to the public, and admission is free.

The quartet will perform works by Schubert, Boccheriani, Suk and Wolf. Their awards include a Fourth Ellen Knowles Harcourt Award (1987) and a 1986 West Virginia Governor's Honor for outstanding music contribution to that state. The group has performed throughout the United States including concerts in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C. The Charleston String Quartet made its European debut in Paris in 1987. Summer festival appearances include the Aspen Music Festival, in Colorado, and the Grand Teton Festival in Wyoming.

Acclaimed for their depth of sound and interest in new music, the Charleston String Quartet has become known for their expressive style and rapport with their audiences. Partial funding for this program was provided by the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts.

McKILLOP GALLERY TO FEATURE PHOTO EXHIBITION

The McKillop Gallery presents a photo exhibition titled "Lost Child" from November 10 through December 1. The black and white images feature abandoned playgrounds, wooded areas and other childhood hangouts as captured by Mass. resident Thomas Steven Young.

An Associate Professor of Art at Greenfield Community College, Young holds a B.A. in Photography from Goddard College and an M.F.A. from Rhode Island School of Design.

SALVE REGINA RECEIVES JOHN CLARKE TRUST GRANT

Salve Regina College's Development Office has announced a $6,000 grant from the John Clarke Trust of Newport. The grant represents two scholarships in the amount of $3,000 each to be awarded to nursing students at the College.

One of the oldest active trusts in the United States, the John Clarke Trust was established in 1676 by Dr. John Clarke to help support and encourage students entering religious life and the medical profession.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE RECEIVES ROBERT R. YOUNG GRANT

Salve Regina College's Development Office has announced a $10,000 grant from the Robert R. Young Foundation, of Greenwich, Conn. The grant will be used for student scholarship funds.

CAREER/LIFE PLANNING MINI-COURSE

A "Career/Life Planning" mini-course, open to college students and the general public, takes place on November 5 and 6.

Sponsored by the College's Sociology Department, the course will be taught by the Director of Career Planning and Placement Mrs. Bernice Whitaker. According to Mrs. Whitaker, the purpose of the course is to introduce students to career information as they pursue their academic degrees.

For registration information, call the Registrar's Office at extension 226. For further information on the course, call the College Placement Office at extension 495.

NURSING CAREER DAY

There will be a Nursing Career Day sponsored by the Career Planning and Placement Office on November 16 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Ochre Court. Anyone interested in a profession in health should attend. Contact Mrs. Bernice Whitaker at extension 495 for more information.

DANCERS MARATHON

The 7th Annual Dance Marathon, will be held on Friday, November 18 beginning at 7 p.m. until Saturday, November 19. Dancers need to collect $60.00 per couple or $35 per person. There will be a meeting for all those Dancers interested in dancing in the 20-hour Marathon on Wednesday, October 26, at 6 p.m. in Wakehurst Lounge. Dancers will receive prizes in several different categories during the night. The grand prize will be for the most enthusiastic couple.

HEALTH ALERT

The flu season will soon be upon us and the College Health Service is offering flu shots to the College community. Health Officials generally recommend that the elderly and anyone that has a chronic medical condition receive flu shots. They should be given before the end of November to be effective. Please call College Health Services for further information at extension 219 or 340.

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Jack Childs, Professor of Human Development, gave a talk, "An Overview of Holistic Living," as the first in a series of presentations on holism at the URI extension course in Providence on October 8. Dr. Childs also attended the Convention of the American Counselor Educators in St. Louis last October 9 - 11. Five hundred counselor educators from the nation attended.

John Rok, Dean of Students and Assistant Professor of Religious Studies, recently attended a conference at URI on "Assessment to Improve Student Learning and Development: A Shared Responsibility." This national interactive teleconference brought together over 15,000 academic and student affairs professionals at 252 campus sites across the United States and Canada to discuss directions and strategies for collaborative assessment efforts in the field of higher education.

Sister Leona Misto, Director of Graduate Independent Studies, attended the National Conference on Adult and External Degree Programs in Washington, D.C. The theme of the Conference, sponsored by The Alliance and the American Council on Education, was "Advancing Our National Agenda."

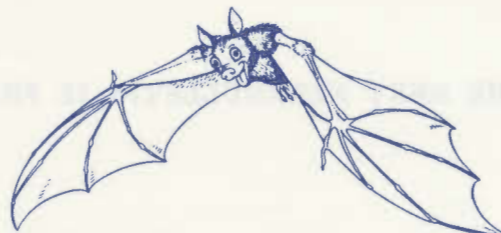

Dr. Frank Maguire, Professor of Religious Studies, recently offered two all-day workshops for the advanced course at the U.S. Naval Chaplains School. The first workshop, on September 23, focused on the subject of "Ethics and Computer Technology"; the second, on October 6, was on the subject "Recent Developments in Christian Ethic's."

Sister Arlene Woods, Associate Professor of Art, presented a series of Art History lectures in October at the King House Senior Citizen Center.

STAFF NEWS

Susan Rose, Assistant Director of Residential Life for Administration will serve as a member of the CPARI Executive Board during the 1988-89 Academic Year. The College Personnel Association of Rhode Island is open to anyone interested in the field of Student Personnel and Development and offers a professional network for student affairs staff from colleges and universities throughout the state of Rhode Island.

Patricia Hatfield, formerly Arts and Entertainment Writer for Newport This Week, has been appointed Assistant Director of Public Relations. This is a new position.

STUDENT NEWS

STUDY ABROAD NEWS Salve Regina College has accepted an invitation from Providence College to join in a program of study at Fribourg University, Fribourg, Switzerland. La Salle University is also involved in this ACP (American College Program). This is a full year of study with classes taught in English, but, as Fribourg is in the French speaking region of Switzerland, some knowledge of the language is advisable.

Regent's College in London offers Salve Regina students an incredible educational experience during a Spring or Fall semester or for a full year of study abroad. The program, sponsored by Rockford College, Rockford, Ill., a British/American Center of International Studies, includes a broad range of academic areas such as Art, Psychology, Computer Science, Business, History, Political Science, Economics, Language, Literature and Sociology.

STUDY ABROAD PANEL HOSTED BY FRENCH DEPARTMENT Father Michael Malone, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Sister Consilii Reynolds, Director of Foreign Students and Studies Abroad, student Gail Mangan, and student Nicole Rose described numerous programs available for study abroad when some thirty participants met recently in Ochre Court. Foreign experiences discussed included the African Program and several possibilities for study in France, Quebec, Spain, and South America. It was emphasized that these latter programs are not limited to language majors or minors. Sister Consilii also explained the England and Ireland Programs.

RETURNING FROM FRANCE Students, Tammy Vaz, Kimberly Sullivan, and Nicole Rose, spent the spring semester in France. Tammy studied in Paris while Kimberly and Nicole attended the University in Cannes.

PRESENTLY IN FRANCE Jason Burrell, Christine Piezzo, and Deborah Tamulis are studying in France this semester. Jason, an Art major and French minor, is spending the year abroad. Christine, a French major, is also in Paris. Deborah, a Political Science major and French minor, is in Grenoble. Previous to beginning their studies, Christine and Deborah had an orientation period in Antibes, on the French Riviera.

MONSTER BASH AND DASH

Students, faculty, staff members and friends can have a haunting good time, get some exercise and help Rhode Island Special Olympics on Saturday, October 29 and Sunday, October 30. On Saturday, you can scare up some fun at the Bewitching Ball, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Newport Marriott. Tickets cost $15, and all proceeds go to Special Olympics.

On Sunday, a 5K (3.1 miles) Roadrace begins at noon at Freebody Park ($10 registration fee). All proceeds benefit Special Olympics. Applications for the race are available at the College Athletic Center.

DEADLINE FOR THE NEXT NEWSBULLETIN IS FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

