

2-24-1989

Newsbulletin vol. 19, no. 10

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 19, no. 10" (1989). newsbulletin. 413.
<http://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/413>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. It has been accepted for inclusion in newsbulletin by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Salve Regina. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@salve.edu.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

VOL 19 ISSUE 10

February 24, 1989

PAPER WORK WITH NEW TWISTS

Paper work can mean long hours of toil over detailed reports, or it can take on an entirely new meaning at "Paper Work You'll Like", the new exhibit at the McKillop Gallery at Salve Regina College. Six artists will show paper artwork ranging from collage to monoprints now through March 14.

Katherine Valvoda, a lecturer at Salve Regina College will show mixed media works with psychological and metaphysical themes.

You're Invited

JAZZ IN THE AFTERNOON

The Noon Concert Series will showcase folk jazz with Native American, Indian and African influences when Tim Morgan and Tony Vacca perform on March 1. Morgan specializes in alto and soprano sax, flute, alto flute, and voice and Vacca combines vocal talents with the balafon, a forerunner of the xylophone, and other rarely heard percussion instruments including blekete drum and rainstick. Vacca and Morgan have recorded "Wizard's Dance" (Philo Records, 1983) and "City Spirits" (Philo Records, 1986).

WOMEN AND REPRODUCTIVE TECHNOLOGY
EXAMINED BY WOMAN CONNECTION CONFERENCE

A workshop entitled "Reproductive Technology and the Future" will take place at O'Hare Academic Center on Sat., March 4 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The workshop is sponsored by the Woman Connection Committee.

Presenters represent the Institute on Women and Technology, a Massachusetts-based advocacy organization which works to analyze the effects of new and existing technologies on women. The institute contends that scientific and medical procedures, from birth control devices to surgery, have been designed by men and carried out by men on women without concern for women's emotional, economic or physical well-being.

Following morning presentations, a panel will challenge the featured speakers and generate audience discussion. Panelists will include Linda J. Kushner, an attorney and Rhode Island state representative; Rosalina Ekman Ladd, a philosophy instructor at Wheaton College and clinical lecturer at Brown University; and Karen Murphy, Director of the Graduate Management department at Salve Regina.

* * *

FRENCH CLUB: FILM AND FEAST UPDATE

Two of the more enjoyable aspects of any national culture are its films and its food, and the French Club makes a feast of both.

Le Cercle Francais recently viewed "Diva" directed by Jean-Jacques Beineix.

On March 1, the club will sponsor its annual French cooking contest. The cooking portion is open only to students, but faculty and staff are invited to taste desserts and hors d'oeuvres. Look for flyers announcing exact time and location or contact Sr. Eugena Poulin, at ext. 276.

* * *

JUMP FOR THE HEART OF IT

Have fun and raise funds for the American Heart Association on Sunday, March 12 at 6 p.m. The College Intramural Department will sponsor a one-hour "Jump for Heart" program at the Newport County YMCA.

Faculty and students are invited to form teams. Refreshments will be served and joining is as easy as counting to three:

1. Form a team of your friends and or co-workers.
2. Select an event: Swim for Heart
Jump Rope for Heart
Aerobics for Heart
3. Solicit friends or family to sponsor you by contributing (pledging) on a per minute/hour basis.

For more information, contact Jerri DiCamillo, Coordinator of Intramurals, Athletic Building, Room 205, ext. 404.

* * *

LIP-SYNC CONTEST

The junior class will sponsor the First Annual Lip-Sync Contest on Tuesday, March 14 at 8 p.m. in Mercy Gym.

Live entertainment will be provided by Ron Bianco and his singing dog Bilbo in a fun medley of 50s favorites by Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens, Elvis and others.

Cash prizes will be awarded for lip-sync winners. Tickets cost $3. For more information, contact Eric Weliczko at ext. 348 or Frank Montecalvo at ext. 480.

* * *

PHANTOM OF THE OPERA SURVEY

Would you spend $55 to see "Phantom of the Opera" in New York? College Activities needs to know. If there's enough demand, we will order the tickets which will be sold in the fall on a first come, first serve basis. Reservations are tight, so we wouldn't be going until Spring 1990. If you are interested call ext. 490.

CATS

Due to popular demand, an additional 25 orchestra tickets are now available for the April 16 performance of "Cats" at the Providence Performing Arts Center. Tickets can be purchased at College Activities for $30 each which includes transportation by coach bus. The bus leaves Miley at 12:30 p.m. Hurry; tickets are going fast!

* * *

FACULTY AND STAFF APPRECIATION

Students will pay tribute to faculty and staff during Faculty and Staff Appreciation week Feb. 27 - March 3.

Newport Mayor Robert McKenna will present a proclamation to Sister Lucille McKillop on Wednesday, March 1 to officially recognize faculty and staff contributions. Students will also sign a Scroll of Appreciation which will be displayed in Ochre Court.

John Rok, Dean of Students said, "The students want to express their appreciation for staff and faculty now--for what they're doing for the students today--not four years down the road."

* * *

SEARS FOUNDATION GRANT

Sister M. Therese Antone, Vice President for Institutional Advancement announced an unrestricted grant to the College of $1,400 from the Sears - Roebuck Foundation.

The foundation presents an annual award to Salve Regina, and the funds may be used for the support of general operations of the College. This year's grant was presented to the College by Peter Nero, store manager of the Middletown Sears - Roebuck.

* * *

HONOR'S CONVOCATION DATE ANNOUNCED

This year's Honor's Convocation will be held on Saturday, April 22 at 10:00 a.m. in the Naval War College's Spruance Auditorium. The Convocation will be followed by a reception in Wakehurst for award recipients, parents, guests and Sigma Phi Sigma members and their families. Look for more details in future editions of the News Bulletin.

LISTEN AND LEARN ABOUT GREAT AUTHORS

You can learn more about great authors when the English department hosts senior thesis presentations on Saturday, Feb. 25 and Sunday, Feb. 26. Morning sessions will take place from 8:30 a.m. - 12 p.m. and afternoon sessions will run from 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. on both days.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister M. Therese Antone, Vice President for Institutional Advancement has been accepted into the Massachusetts Institute For Technology (MIT) program for senior executives. Sister Therese will attend March 5 - May 5. The intensive management program includes senior executives from all over the United States as well as from international businesses and government organizations.

Limited to 50 students, the program addresses concerns of senior management executives, including world economy, rapid technological change and effective human resource management. Planned seminars integrate business principles with elements of the humanities by using Shakespeare and other classical literary sources, along with economic data, to create a humanistic and holistic base for corporate strategy, planning and management.

In addition, Sister Therese addressed the members of the District I Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) Conference held in Montreal in early February. She discussed "Strategies for Raising Corporate and Foundation Support in a Capital Campaign."

Reverend John J. Duggan, Ph.D., priest counselor for students and the College community at Salve Regina, has been elected to membership in the American Psychological Association (APA). The APA is the world's largest association of psychologists with affiliations through-out the United States and Canada.

Dr. Mary Louise Greeley, Chair of the Biology & Biomedical Sciences Department presented a talk on "Cholesterol: The Evaluation of its Nutritional Theory and Current Practice" at a luncheon for the Newport Hospital Auxiliary in honor of new auxiliary members. Dr. Greeley addressed such pertinent issues as the recent increase in the number of adults with abnormal cholesterol, current theories on reducing cholesterol, the types of fatty acids and their effects on cholesterol, and the HDL and LDL components of cholesterol and their effects on atherosclerosis and its long-term impact on health.

Jay Lacouture, Chairperson of the Art Department recently attended a conference hosted by The Getty Center for Education in the Arts in Los Angeles. The conference, "Education in Art: Future Building", was an invitational event attended by arts administrators, museum staff, art teachers, college professors and public policy makers in the arts. The Getty Center is dedicated to improving the quality and status of arts education in the nation's schools.

The French Review, the national magazine for the American Association of the Teachers of French, published "Computer Technology Once Again" an article written by Sr. Eugena Poulin in its February issue. This article addresses the problems of word processing encountered by foreign language teachers and suggests some solutions.

Dorothy Troendle Memorial The Faculty Senate wishes to establish a memorial in honor of Dorothy Troendle. After consulting with her family, they decided that a set of scholarly books for the new library would be a fitting tribute.

Collections will continue through February. Donations should be given to Sister Patricia Combies. Please make checks payable to "Salve Regina College Faculty Senate" with a note "for Dorothy Troendle Memorial."

* * *

STAFF NEWS

Several members of the Professional Staff recently attended a Seminar on Acquaintance/Date Rape Prevention held at the University of Rhode Island as part of a national video teleconference. Wayne Carlile, Jan Steimer, Sister Hope Hughes, Sue Rose, Kim Campbell, Teresa Fitzsimmons, Liz Minifie, and John Rok participated in the on-site discussion program and national teleconference network that connected nearly 200 other university locations across the country.

Jimmie Lynch, Director of Salve Regina College Intramurals/YMCA Program, recently attended the Annual Region I National Intramural Recreational Sports Association Conference (NIRSA) at the High Ridge Sport & Convention Center in Killington, VT. Lynch serves as a member of the Intramural/Special Events Committee.

Tim O'Brien, who attended Salve Regina College for four years and graduated with an Administration of Justice degree, has been appointed to serve as hall director for Carey Mansion and Seaview residence halls.

Jerry Zeoli, has been appointed as varsity field and track coach for men and women for the Spring season. Zeoli, a native of Johnston, Rhode Island, is currently on sabbatical from his duties as Athletic Director and head football coach at Moses Brown in Providence.

* * *

STUDENT NEWS

Regina Graziani, '88, is a semifinalist for a Fulbright Grant. Graziani is completing her graduate studies in International Relations as she awaits final word on the Fulbright.

Patricia Reall, Salve Regina Women's Basketball Team's Center, is the second most accurate NCAA Division III shooter in the nation. She averages 16.8 points per game. Salve Regina College ranks eleventh in the nation.

Women's Basketball Ranked in Top Ten, the women's basketball team is currently the tenth ranked team in New England, according to the most recent New England Women's Basketball Association Coaches Poll. The Lady Newporters received 17 points from New England Coaches after a 4-0 start. The poll marks the first time a Salve Regina Basketball team has been included in the top ten in New England. Congratulations to Coach Sheedy, assistant coach St. Jean and the entire team.

Sherri Catizone, a sophomore majoring in Politics and who plans to attend law school, has been named a semi-finalist in the annual competition for the Harry S. Truman Foundation Scholarship. The foundation established by Congress to honor President Truman, assists outstanding students in the preparation for public service careers. Only one scholarship is awarded each year in the United States, and it can include $28,000 over four years in undergraduate and graduate studies. Sherri will receive news of final selection this spring.

* * *

STUDY ABROAD UPDATE

Currently three students are enjoying a full year of study in Europe. Janet Papalia is in Spain, Nancy Lee Miller is at Trinity and All Saints College, Leeds, England. Jason Burrell is at Parsons School of Design, Paris.

Eighteen students left for study in Europe during the first week of January. Nine went to England, three are in France, two are in Italy, two are in Spain, one went to Austria and one has gone to sea. This sea-study program consists of visiting major port cities of Europe throughout the semester.

