Salve Regina College opened its seven-teenth academic year with the Mass of the Holy Spirit on Monday, September 23. This year's record enrollment of nearly 600 students contrasts with the college's initial class of fifty students in 1947.

Of the 597 students there are: 178 freshman, 110 sophomores, 172 juniors, 118 seniors and 19 special students. There are 14 states represented, from Maine to California; and five foreign countries, from British Honduras to India.

Salve Regina College, located in historic Newport, is a four-year, fully accredited, private liberal arts college, offering curricula leading to the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Science degrees. It is operated by the Sisters of Mercy of the Province of Providence, serves both resident and day students, and is open to qualified young women regardless of creed or race.
