Patrick T. Conley, Professor of history at Providence College and former Governor Dennis J. Roberts will take the pro and con positions respectively in a discussion on the proposed Constitution of the State of Rhode Island Tuesday, February 27 at 7:30 p. m. in the new O'Hare Academic Center of Salve Regina College. The public is invited.

Co-sponsored by the department of political science <sup>AND</sup> the Young Democrats and Republicans on campus, the discussion will be moderated by Robert McKenna, chairman of the college's political science department.

This in-depth study of the proposed constitution precedes by one day the regional hearing to be held Wednesday at Thompson Junior High School.
