SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Press Release

SALVE HOSTS SOCIAL STUDIES ASS'N.

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Salve Regina College in Newport will play host to members of the Rhode Island Social Studies Association. The spring meeting of the group will be held in Newport on Thursday, May 9 beginning at four o'clock. Tours have been arranged to Hunter House, the finest surviving house of pre-Revolutionary Newport which ranks among the ten best examples of colonial residential architecture, and to "The Breakers", the most magnificent of all Newport summer residences. Dinner will be served at Ochre Court, Salve Regina College at 6:00 P.M. Commander Walter J. Whitley, U.S. Navy, homeowner, and Mr. Donald Dodge, retired architect, will discuss the topic "Current Developments in the Restoration of Newport." Both speakers are owners of restored homes which they now occupy.
