FOR RELEASE

AT WILL

March 1969

Sister Maureen A. Dietz, R.S.M., Assistant Professor in the Science Education Department at Salve Regina College, Newport, will speak at the Annual Teachers' Convention for the Catholic School Department, Fall River, Massachusetts on Thursday, May 8, 1969 at the Bishop Feehan High School in Attleboro, Massachusetts.

At the 2:00 P.M. session, Sister Maureen will speak about new instructional approaches to the teaching of elementary school science. Emphasis will be placed on new curriculum studies for kindergarten through sixth grades and the philosophy of teaching science through "discovery".

At the 3:30 P.M. session, the general topics will be the same as stated above but with the appropriate changes so that problems particular to the junior high school are discussed.
