Readers Theatre To Hold Auditions

On November 25, Paul Preuit, assistant director of Readers Theatre, will hold auditions for the Spring semester productions.

The auditions will be held in the Twombly-Burden room, recently re-named the Readers Theatre Twombly Burden room, from 5:30 PM until 7:30. This Spring, RT is offering a variety of presentations geared to all tastes. Included are a comedy in "Charley's Aunt," a tragic romance in "David and Lisa," and a children's theatre production of "Jonathan Livingston Seagull."

If you are interested but cannot attend the audition, please contact either Mr. Preuit or Mr. Robert Kulo, at ext. #83, or stop in the office located backstage of the RT.

Note: Mr. Preuit is directing all three productions and welcomes any and all of the college community to attend. RT is progressing rapidly, and the program is expanding so as to interest all. Mr. Preuit welcomes any original scripts that students would like to have done in RT. No script is too short or too long. For further information you may contact the office at ext. #83.

Long-Awaited Senior Class Meeting

The Senior class will meet on Monday, November 25, at 4 PM in Angelus Hall (first floor, student meeting room). Commencement activities and dates of these activities will be decided. A large attendance is necessary for this business to be accomplished. All Law Enforcement seniors are expected to attend.

Sherry Hour

Members of the residence hall department will welcome all members of the college community at a sherry hour, to be held on Monday, November 25, at 7 PM., in Alumni Lounge.

Faculty Items

Leslie O'Brien, residence hall director, attended a conference on Student Development at the Center for Personal Growth, at the University of Connecticut, November 21 - 22.
