Two Students Appointed State Interns

Valerie Berg ('75) and Karl Brenner ('75) have been appointed to internships in the Rhode Island State Government.

Valerie, a sociology major, is working with Donald Taylor, director of the Department of Correction. Karl, a senior in the History-Politics department, is assisting Judge Joseph Weisberger, presiding judge of the state Supreme Court.

Robert McKenna (History/Politics) is chairman of the Commission on State Government Internships.

Trip to Italy Contemplated

A trip to Italy, April 11-19, to celebrate the Holy Year is under consideration by some students.

Leaving Boston on Friday, April 11, the tourists will visit Rome, Florence, Milan, Bologna, Pisa, Perugia, Naples, Capri, and Sorrento.

The $489 charge pays for air fare, accommodations, meals, tour costs, and transportation.

Because classes are in session, arrangements with instructors for classes missed should be sought by students.

Contact Mary Ann Raboin, Founders Hall, ext. 23, or 846-8887.

Deadline is February 18.
