West Side Auditions Scheduled

WEST SIDE STORY: "There's a Place for" . . . You.

The S.R.C. Theatre Division announces open auditions for its April production of the break-through hit Broadway musical, WEST SIDE STORY.

Tuesday, Feb. 18 - 7:00 PM

Wednesday, Feb. 19 - 7:00 PM

Campus Theatre-Mercy Hall

Each part is important, exciting and individually realized in this Bernstein-Sondheim collaboration which relies so wonderfully on the concepts of ensemble acting and the creation of social realism.

Come, too, if your interests are props, make-up, carpentering, etc., but don't be surprised if you end up wanting to be a Jet or a Shark or one of their girls.

Further information: Joan David. 206 O'Hare; Howard Passwater, Nancy Devine.

P.C. and S.R.C. To Co-Sponsor Irish Fortnight

Providence College and SRC will co-sponsor the Irish Fortnight in March. This two-week series of lectures and performances, the second time that Rhode Island hosts the program, will be held at P.C., March 2-8, and here, March 9-15.

The Irish-American Cultural Institute makes the program possible, and all events are free.

The schedule of events will be available shortly.

Robert J. McKenna is campus coordinator.

Faculty Items

Dr. Dorothy Troendle (English) has earned certification in techniques of voiceprint identification.

Sr. Elizabeth Morancy (History/Politics) worked as an assistant in the Washington office of Senator Pell, during the January interim.

Robert McKenna (History/Politics) has been appointed chairman of the Education Subcommittee of the Finance Committee within the R. I. General Assembly. Recently also he was appointed to a legislative commission called by the Lt. Governor to study the health implications of abortion.

Sister Lucille McKillop, SRC president, will be discussing "Simulation Models for Analyzing Tenure Policy under Steady-State Conditions" at the Southeastern Regional Meeting of the American Institute for Decision Sciences (AIDS) at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, South Carolina, on February 21.
