RECESSIONAL

Malaak Compton-Rock

*Doctor of Humane Letters
honoris causa*

Giving wings to those around you so they may soar, you, Malaak Compton-Rock, view every person, young or old, rich or poor, as a catalyst for transformation in the world. Mindful of your many blessings, you not only speak the inspirational words of Marion Wright Edelman, “service is the rent you pay for living,” you live them each day.

A born activist, you have found your authentic self by giving of your time and talent, empowering others to do the same. With gentle humor and steadfast determination, you challenge others to reflect upon and reach out to causes they hold dear.

A philanthropist whose actions resonate with the conviction of selflessness, you effect positive change through groundbreaking initiatives such as styleWORKS, The Triple Negative Breast Cancer Foundation, the Champions for Children Committee, and Journey for Change: Empowering Youth through Global Service. Your Angelrock Project offers a unique platform to promote volunteerism and sustainable change across the globe.

As a graduate of Howard University, you have followed in the wake of many pioneers while forging your own path to prominence. Your talents and experience in the field of public relations ultimately led you to the U.S. Fund for UNICEF, and to your beloved South Africa. Recognizing the importance of global citizenship, you provide others with a passport to personal discovery.

Your expeditions have revealed to underprivileged youth that they do, indeed, have much to offer. Because of you, women in need of hope have gained confidence by learning that true beauty and dignity reside within. A compassionate explorer, you believe with all your heart that “we travel farthest when we travel together,” and we must care for our neighbors as friends, whether they reside next door or across the ocean.

Grounded in your ideals, it is with divine inspiration that you promote peace, giving and social responsibility. Your encouragement of even the smallest acts cultivates a spirit of service that, when spread through multiple generations, will lead to meaningful change.

With deep and abiding respect for your dedication to service as author, mentor, mother, friend and role model for those seeking guidance in life’s journey, Salve Regina University is honored to confer upon you, Malaak Compton-Rock, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights and privileges, on this sixteenth day of May 2010.

Richard Grosvenor

*Doctor of Humane Letters
honoris causa*

With the stroke of a brush, you, Richard Grosvenor, artist, teacher, mentor, and friend, transform blank canvas into a reflection of the beauty that surrounds you. The serenity of the sand and sea, the majesty of a cathedral spire, the rush of the ocean past the bow of a sleek racing yacht—the vivid watercolors come to life by way of your palette and your gift.

Born in France and raised in Rhode Island, your degree in Fine Arts from Harvard University cultivated the early seeds of your captivation with learning and teaching. Your contagious love of art and architecture has engaged generations—from students at St. George's School to the Circle of Scholars at Salve Regina—and coaxed from them a creativity that only you could inspire.

So much more than a teacher, your gentle soul and easy humor take education beyond the boundaries of the classroom walls and into the heart of the community as you guide and enlighten.

Your generosity of spirit is known far and wide and you tirelessly give of yourself and your art. You have enriched the community with your volunteer service, and countless individuals have been touched by your kindness. Dedicated to the Seamen's Church Institute and the Newport Art Museum, you have guided these worthy organizations and enabled them to flourish.

With gratitude for your strong commitment to the University and community beyond, Salve Regina is honored to confer upon you, Richard Grosvenor, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa, with all its attendant rights and privileges, on this sixteenth day of May 2010.

Academic Regalia

When universities were taking form in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, they were under the jurisdiction of the Church. Most of those studying were clerks in Holy Orders, monks, or priests. They wore a habit or cloak, to which was attached a cowl or hood. This could be pulled up over the head or thrown back, according to the weather. Gowns were necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings, and hoods served to cover the tonsured head before the use of the skull cap.

Today, the academic costume of cap, gown, and hood has taken on a symbolic meaning. Colors and shapes conform to a generally accepted code and indicate the faculty conferring the degree and the kind of degree conferred. Gowns for the bachelor's degree are worn closed and are distinguished by their long, pointed sleeves. Master's degree gowns are designed to be worn open. They have very long sleeves, oblong in shape. Gowns for the doctoral degree, usually black, are also designed to be worn open and have velvet panels. Three velvet bars are stitched to the upper part of the full, bell-shaped sleeves.

Hoods are trimmed with a slim strip of velvet to indicate the specific faculty awarding the degree. The colored lining is the official color of the institution conferring the degree. Hoods may be trimmed to represent the following academic areas:

Arts, Letters, Humanities.....	White
Business Administration	Light Brown
Education	Light Blue
Fine Arts	Brown
Musical Arts	Pink
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Science.....	Golden Yellow
Theology.....	Scarlet

Honor Cords

Students at Salve Regina University who have distinguished themselves through academic performance wear honor cords of these colors:

Gold — Summa Cum Laude

Blue — Magna Cum Laude

White — Cum Laude

The Mace

The mace and its bearer represent a custom that dates back to the Middle Ages. From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office carried by the procession leader. In the academic world, the mace signifies teaching authority.

The Salve Regina University mace was designed by Rhode Island sculptor Paul A. Cavanagh as an octagonal, formalized flower. The staff of ebony represents “lignum vitae” — the tree of life. A circle of eight rigid geometric forms of silver, peaked with pyramids of lapis lazuli, are representative of the Virtues. The Intellectual and Moral Virtues enable one to lead a fruitful and good life. The extending leaves of blossom deriving from the silver forms are symbolic of one’s development in the world. An inner circle of leaves, in close embrace with the central form, and pistil-like cruciform with crown, suggest one’s development in love of Christ and the cross.

The President’s Medallion

The sterling silver medallion worn by the University President at all formal academic functions symbolizes the leadership and authority of the institution’s highest office.

Handcrafted by John Cavanagh, the design is based on the University shield, which symbolizes the commitment of the Sisters of Mercy to Salve Regina University, the dedication to learning by all members of the Salve Regina community, and the unending search for wisdom that flows from the knowledge of the liberal scholar. Each link of the chain is a “Mercy Cross,” with a crown superimposed over the face of each cross.

Salve Regina

Hail, Holy Queen enthroned above, O Maria!

Hail Queen of mercy and of love, O Maria!

Triumph all ye Cherubim, Sing with us ye Seraphim,

Heav'n and earth resound the hymn:

Salve, Salve, Salve, Regina!

Our life, our sweetness here below, O Maria!

Our hope in sorrow and in woe, O Maria!

Triumph all ye Cherubim, Sing with us ye Seraphim,

Heav'n and earth resound the hymn:

Salve, Salve, Salve, Regina!
