Ochre Court: There'll Be Some Changes Made

The main door at Ochre Court is now the real main door, and many offices are being relocated.

Until now, the wooden door to the side of the main door was the real main door. Now it isn't; it is now only an exit. The double glass doors have become the main doors.

Office changes are these:

Former Office Will Be Moved to What is Now the ...

Dean of the College	Business Office
Business Office	Registrar's Office
Registrar	Admission's Office
Admissions	Financial Aid and PR offices
Public Relations	Ebb Tide office and third floor,
	SW room
Alumni office	Ebb Tide office
Ebb Tide	Angelus Hall

Summer Session Begins

Classes and workshops of the Summer Session will begin on Monday, June 30.

Revolutionary Flags on Display

Flags of the Revolutionary era in America will be on display on Tuesday, July 1, in Ochre Court.

Leo Waring will provide commentary at the exhibit, which is part of the college's Education for the Bicentennial program. The program begins at 7:30 PM and is open to the public, free of charge.

Peloquin in Concert

C. Alexander Peloquin, together with members of his chorale, will offer a concert of the greatest hymns in the American experience on Sunday, July 6, in Ochre Court.

Peloquin's recent composition for the Bicentennial, "A Prayer for US", will be featured.

The Bicentennial concert, originally planned for 7:30 PM, is expected to begin at 8 PM. It is open to the public, without charge.

Black Heritage Trilogy Begins July 11

Opening on July 11, a Black Heritage Trilogy will offer a program of readings, an exhibit, and a concert in Ochre Court.

Members of Black People Moving will offer a program of readings and poetry surveying the Black experience in America at 8 PM, on Friday, July 11, in Ochre Court.

"The Black Heritage Trail of Newport", a collection of artifacts, maps, and photographs, will be on exhibit in Ochre Court on Saturday, July 12, between 6 PM and 9 PM.

On Sunday, July 13, choir members of the Community Baptist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Joan Minor, will offer a concert of music from the Black heritage in America. The concert in Ochre Court begins at 7:30 PM.

Each of the three events is open, without charge, to the public.

Faculty Item

S. Ann Nelson (History/Politics) will be the guest speaker on WADK's Sunday Forum, July 6. The topic will be Bicentennial Activities at Salve Regina College.

WNB: Next deadline for notices, Wednesday, July 9.
