Dear Sir:-

Referring to our conversation relating to allowance to be made me in part payment of gas consumed in my apartment No 76 East 55th Street, will say that this arrangement took effect beginning Oct. 1st 1895, and the allowance was to be at the rate of one month's rent per annum. The first year's allowance was settled by check received from you Dec. 8th 1896 which settled the matter up to last October, as per my receipt of Dec. 8th which you will no doubt find on file. A similar allowance will be due Oct. 1st of this year. Trusting you will find same correct, I am
Yours very truly,

Geo. P. Benjamin
