PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

October 1970

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

-30 Seconds-

Joseph Heller, the author of Catch-22, the hilarious bestselling anti-war novel, will present dramatic readings from his works, and discuss urgent issues of the times, Wednesday evening, October 14, at 8:30 p.m. in Rogers High School, Wickham Road, Newport. The program, first in a series of lectures sponsored by the Student Congress of Salve Regina College, will be open to the public. Tickets, at fifty cents for students, and one dollar for adults, will be available at the door.
