FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1970

The film The Subject Was Roses will be discussed by a psychologist and sociologist Thursday evening (Nov. 19) at Salve Regina College.

Dr. Lester Carr, Jamestown, vice president for academic affairs, and Jerrold A. Nussbaum, Newport, a member of the College's sociology department will analyze the movie as part of the current FLICKS series on campus.

The discussion will begin at 7:30 p. m. in the Twombly-Burden Room of the O'Hare Academic Center, Ochre Point Ave. The public is invited free.

A graduate of New York University, Dr. Carr received both his master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from Vanderbilt University.

Mr. Nussbaum studied at Cornell University where he earned his bachelor of science degree. He received his master of arts degree at Northwestern University.

Moderating the discussion will be Rev. Christopher Johnson, O. P., director of the College's Christian Life Center which is sponsoring the FLICKS series.

The Subject Was Roses, shown Wednesday evening (Nov. 18) at 7:30 p. m. at the Newport Performing Arts Center in the Van Alen Casino Theater, is the second of five films in the series, "Dimensions of Man."
