CONSORTIUM ON CONTINUING EDUCATION IN SOCIAL WELFARE

On Tuesday, March 15, the College will host an all day Workshop on "Child Abuse and Neglect." The Workshop will open with an address by Dr. Peter Kosseff, Ph.D., Director of the Adolescent and Children's Services Program of the Newport County Community Mental Health Center. During the remainder of the morning and afternoon, the following workshops will run concurrently; all participants will be able to attend two workshops.

1. Understanding the Law; Recognizing Child Abuse and neglect; Initial intervention.
2. Working with Parents.
3. Community Coordination of Child Abuse and Neglect Activities.

Katharine Ostrander, ACSW, Associate Professor of Social Work, Salve Regina College, is coordinator for this program which is made possible by a Federal Training Grant from the Office of Child Development, H. E. W., administered by the Rhode Island Department of Social and Rehabilitative Services, and executed by the Rhode Island Consortium for Continuing Education in Social Welfare of which Salve Regina College is a member.

FILM LECTURE

Mr. William Richardson, founder of "Appalshop", a film workshop in Whitesburg, Kentucky, will give a lecture on film making on Friday, March 11 at 11:30 a. m. Mr. Richardson's presentation will consist of the showing of a short film which he made; a discussion will follow as well as a question and answer period.

In the Fall of 1975, Mr. Richardson was the subject of an article in Newsweek Magazine. Most recently, he appeared in a 90 minute documentary on P. B. S. Channel 36 entitled "The Appalshop". Mr. Richardson comes to Salve as a guest of Dr. Jim Hersh.

SIGMA PHI SIGMA

Congratulations to the fourteen students who have been chosen to be inducted into the Sigma Phi Sigma National Mercy Honor Society. The induction ceremony will be Sunday, March 27 at 2:00 p. m. in Ochre Court.

Sigma Phi Sigma honors students at Colleges sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy. There are nineteen Mercy colleges in the United States. Members of Sigma Phi Sigma are encouraged to uphold

EDUCATION VIA RADIO

The first of a series of programs entitled "Education Via Radio" will be aired over WADK on Tuesday, March 22, 1977 from 9:05 - 10:00 a. m. The series is being sponsored by the Gerontology Committee as a service to the Community. The first five dates and the discussion topics for each have been chosen.

The first two hours will be used as an Introduction to the Series and will be informational rather than instructional. Members of the Administration will give an overall picture of the College's academic programs, future development and the services Salve Regina, the Newport College offers to the community.

The first instructional series will be a presentation on general Health Care, nutrition, exercise as a factor in keeping healthy, food shopping with emphasis on buying the most nutritious foods with some practical budgetary suggestions. The particular needs of the aged will be the paramount consideration during this segment of the series. An understanding of Federal Medicare Programs will be the main topic of one broadcast. Gary Crowder director of WADK, will be the M.C. each time and two members of the Administration and/or Faculty will be on each program. Time will be allowed at the end of the hour for interested listeners to call in and ask questions. Additional programs in Education Via Radio will be devoted to educational topics of community interest.

THE SPORTS SCENE

It is time to sign up for two more Intramural activities. Intramural Softball will start the second week of April. There will be a Men's League and a Women's League. It is not too soon to sign up and to start organizing the teams and choosing captains. The more teams the greater the competition. The teams may only consist of members of the Salve Community, Students, Faculty and Staff. Sign up in Physical Education Office, Mercy Hall

The other Spring Tournament will be a Tennis Tournament. Salve Regina College Students, Family, Friends and Faculty are invited to play. There will be Men's Singles, Women's Singles and Mixed Doubles Tournaments. Sign up NOW at the Physical Education Office (Ext. 329) for the Men's and Women's Singles Tournaments which start April 12th. The Mixed Doubles Tournament is to be scheduled at a later date.

The following are the regulations regarding the use of the College's Tennis Courts:

- To play on the tennis courts, you must have a tennis court pass which is obtained only at the Physical Education Office in Mercy Hall. The pass is good continuously.
- Courts are for use by Salve Students, Faculty, Staff and Alumni only.
- Guests of the above need a guest pass.
- There is a 1 hour time limit on court play.
- People without tennis court passes may be asked to leave the tennis courts by Security or the Physical Education Department staff.

With spring time coming, the use of the tennis courts will be at its optimum, please cooperate so the courts can be used efficiently and fairly. The Physical Education Office is open during the week, so if you plan to play tennis on weekends and you don't have a pass, then you must obtain one early during the week.
