FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1970

The Salve Regina College Glee Club and the St. Mary's Church Choir will stage their traditional Ceremony of Lessons and Carols Sunday (Dec. 6) evening in Newport.

The ceremony, to which the public is invited free, will begin at 7:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Church, Spring St. and Memorial Blvd., Newport.

A number of choral selections accented by seasonal readings will be presented by the two singing groups. Featured in the program will be Jan Sweelinsk's "Hodie Christus Natus Est;" Gustav Holst's "Lullay My Liking;" and a fourteenth century composition, "Angelus ad Virgenam."

Directing Salve Regina's 45-voice ensemble this year is Glenn Giuttari, Providence, who is also a graduate student in musicology at Brown University.

Mrs. Rose Napoli is the director of the St. Mary's Church Choir.
