FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1970

The Salve Regina College Guild will welcome the College's freshmen and their mothers at a reception Sunday (Nov. 15) afternoon on the Newport campus.

The reception, which will be held in Ochre Court from 3 to 5 o'clock, annually gives the Guild members and their guests an opportunity to get acquainted and hear brief, informal reports of campus life by members of the administration and faculty, Guild counselors, and club moderators.

In addition to the reports, there will be entertainment by the students and a coffee hour in the State Dining Room of Salve Regina's seaside administration building.

Heading the reception committee are Mrs. Kenneth Douglas, and Mrs. James Lynch, Jr., both of Providence, and Sister Mary Philemon Banigan, R. S. M., registrar at the College.

The Guild, founded in 1948, with 75 members, now has a membership of more than 1,000 women who are interested in supporting Salve Regina in its renovation, expansion, and general progress. To date, the Guild has raised approximately $200,000 for the College. Their latest gift of $5,000 was presented recently to Sister Mary Christopher, R. S. M., Salve Regina president, at the annual Guild Dinner.

President of the Guild this year is Mrs. Thomas Costa, Warwick, who is assisted on campus by Sister Mary Martina Conley, R. S. M., professor of history and director of Guild activities, and Guild counselors Sister Mary Philemon Banigan, R. S. M., and Sister Mary Brenda Sullivan, R. S. M., associate professor of biology and chairman of the department.
