3 IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 1970

The Alliance Francaise at Salve Regina College will mark the twentieth anniversary of their founding with a reception and banquet Tuesday (Nov. 24) evening on campus.

The celebration will take place in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court, the main administration building -- which is modeled after the French chateau -- beginning at 6 p. m.

Guests of honor at the banquet will be Monsieur Daniel Ortez, consul general of France, in Boston, and Monsieur George I. Duca, director of the Federation of Alliances Francaises, New York City.

Other guests will include four of the 12 former winners of the Alliance's "Summer Study in Paris" awards. One of the winners is Miss Susan A. Edward, Middletown, a Salve Regina graduate who spent two years serving with the Peace Corps in Tunisia.

Bringing the greetings of the College to the festivities will be Salve Regina president Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M., who is president of the Providence and Newport Senior Alliances Francaises.

The officers of the local chapter will also be on hand, as will members of Salve Regina's French department. The latter group will include Associate Professor Georgette V. Ramos, Newport, who founded the Alliance Francaise at the women's college in 1950.
