SYMPOSIUM ON JUSTICE AND PEACE

Salve Regina, The Newport College has planned to hold symposia throughout the coming academic year which will study the theme of Justice and Peace. The first day of the year-long symposium will be Thursday, September 1, 1977. The administrators, faculty, and the members of student congress will be attending this first day of the year-long symposium, which will also mark the beginning of the academic year. Sister Lucille McKillop, President, will address the group explaining why the College is concerned with Justice and Peace. The morning's keynote speaker will be Mr. Edward J. Holland, from the Center of Concern, Washington, DC. The title of Mr. Holland's talk will be "Analysis of socio-economic and political trends in relation to global issues of justice and peace." There will be an opportunity for questions following the talk. Dr. Joseph Fahey, Professor of Social Ethics and Director of Program in Peace Studies, Manhattan College, will discuss Catholic Social principles in Catholic Higher Education, with special attention to what can be done through the various academic departments. The day's program will conclude with a summary of the day's proceedings given by Reverend Eugene Hillman, Chairman of the Symposium Program. Father Hillman will also give an overview of the entire year's series of symposia on Justice and Peace. The day will conclude about 4 p. m.

SRC ART FACULTY EXHIBIT AT DESIGNERS' SHOWHOUSE

Two members of Salve's Art Faculty are showing works at the Designers' Showhouse at Wakehurst. Melvin Lieberman is showing photographs and Sister Arlene Woods is showing acrylic paintings. These are on view in the Lower Section of the Servants' Stairwell. Sister Arlene has some additional paintings on the South Corridor of the Third Floor.

SOMETHING TO SUIT EVERYONE'S TASTE

The Designers' Showhouse is drawing such large crowds, over 7,500 have been through the exhibit already, that the closing date has been extended to Sunday, September 11, which will be the last day. All who visit leave impressed with the beauty of the Wakehurst grounds as well as fascinated by the creativity of the Designers' creations. There is something to please everyone's taste. Wakehurst seems eloquently to reflect the varying moods the designers' have hoped to portray.

Salve Regina College is pleased to have been able to lend Wakehurst for this show, which is for the benefit of the Newport Chapter of the Red Cross.

Within a few weeks, you will be given the opportunity to contribute to the United Way of Southeastern New England campaign. I am confident your generosity and interest in the welfare of others will make our college a leader and pace-setter in this annual community effort.

Salve Regina College whole-heartedly supports the idea of giving to the United Way campaign... one annual asking for 123 health, family and character building agencies. You will be asked to make your contribution through our year-round payroll deduction payment plan. This way you spread your Fair Share and generosity over the entire year.
