Sr. Joan McInnis, R. S. M. , has joined the faculty of Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I. , as an instructor in education and mathematics.

A native of East Boston, and a graduate of Webster College, Sr. Joan earned her master in education degree at the University of Georgia, and is working toward her master at teaching mathematics degree at Catholic University of America.

Prior to her current appointment, she was for fifteen years Sister Mary Marcelline of the teaching staff at Mount St. Mary Academy, Little Rock, Ark. She also served as chairman of the Little Rock Diocesan Vocation Council, and mathematics coordinator for that city's Catholic schools.

Sister McInnis has held several fellowships and participated in six summer institutes in mathematics. She is a member of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Salve Regina College, located on Newport's famed Cliff Walk above the Atlantic Ocean, is a fully accredited, Catholic, liberal arts college for 700 women working toward baccalaureate degrees in a dozen major fields. The college is one of nine institutions of higher education conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States.
