FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 1971

Mr. Gerald Fetner, Providence, R. I., has joined the faculty of Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I., as a lecturer in the history department.

A native of New York City, and a graduate of Queens College, Mr. Fetner also earned his master of arts degree at his alma mater. He is presently a doctoral candidate at Brown University.

Prior to his current appointment, Mr. Fetner was a lecturer at Queens College, Flushing, New York, and a teaching assistant at Brown.

He is a member of the Organization of American Historians.

Mr. Fetner is the son of Mrs. Betty Fetner, 144-39 68th Ave., Flushing, New York.

Salve Regina College, located on Newport's famed Cliff Walk above the Atlantic Ocean, is a fully accredited, Catholic, liberal arts college for 700 women working toward baccalaureate degrees in a dozen major fields. The college is one of nine institutions of higher education conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States.
