FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 1971

Mr. Chester G. Lupton, Providence, R.I., has joined the faculty of Salve Regina College, Newport, R.I., as an instructor in psychology.

A native of Monticello, N.Y., and a graduate of Harpur College, Binghamton, N.Y., Mr. Lupton earned his master of science degree at Brown University. While working toward his master's degree he was teaching assistant at Brown.

Mr. Lupton is a member of a number of professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association, as well as of Sigma Xi National Honor Society.

He is the son of Mrs. Leona Lupton, Decker St., South Fallsburg, N.Y.

Salve Regina College, located on Newport's famed Cliff Walk above the Atlantic Ocean, is a fully accredited, Catholic, liberal arts college for 700 women working toward baccalaureate degrees in a dozen major fields. The college is one of nine institutions of higher education conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States.
