January 1971

A former Pelham resident, Miss Florence G. Lahey, has joined the faculty of Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I., as an instructor in nursing.

Born in New York City, Miss Lahey earned her bachelor of science degree in public health nursing education at New York University's School of Education. She is also an alumna of the Medical College of Virginia. A retired commander in the U. S. Navy Nurse Corps, Miss Lahey completed her final tour of active duty at the Newport, R. I. Naval Hospital.

She is a member of a number of professional organizations, including the R. I. chapters of the American Nurse Association and the American Physical Therapy Association.

Salve Regina College, located on Newport's famed Cliff Walk above the Atlantic Ocean, is a fully accredited, Catholic liberal arts college for 700 women working toward baccalaureate degrees in a dozen major fields. The college is one of nine institutions of higher education conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States.
