FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 1971

Sister Diane Marie Taylor, R. S. M., Rumford, has joined the faculty of Salve Regina College as an instructor in the College's new department of creative arts.

Prior to her current appointment, Sr. Diane was principal at St. Mary's School, Bristol, R. I. She had formerly taught at Tyler School, and St. Patrick's School, in Providence.

Born in Washington, D. C., she earned her baccalaureate degree at Catholic Teachers College, and her master of fine arts degree at Siena Heights College, Adrian, Mich.

Sister Diane is the daughter of Mrs. Hazel B. Taylor, 103 Wilson Ave., Rumford, R. I.

Salve Regina College, located on Newport's famed Cliff Walk above the Atlantic Ocean, is a fully accredited, Catholic, liberal arts college for 700 women working toward baccalaureate degrees in a dozen major fields. The college is one of nine institutions of higher education conducted by the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States.
