REMARKS.—Our patrons must not assume that compliance with instructions is a matter of course. We do not undertake that insurance will be covered, or that it will be covered as soon as desired, or that any other specific instructions will be carried out. There are often difficulties in the way of effecting insurance, whether for new or additional amounts or for extension or replacing of expired or expiring risks; there are also occasional delays or even failure. Against such difficulties, delays and failures we cannot and do not guarantee. We cannot assume, and we expressly disclaim, all responsibility, either for failure or delay in covering insurance, or for vitiation of existing policies or binders, or for any other inability or failure to comply with instructions.
