FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 1971

among 63 freshman nursing students at Salve Regina College, Newport, who received their caps at a traditional ceremony this week on the College's oceanside campus.

Sister Mary Christopher, R. S. M., president of the liberal arts college for women, welcomed some 200 parents and other friends to the ceremony held in the Great Hall of Ochre Court, the main administration building.

Other salutations and congratulations were rendered for the Division of Nursing by Mrs. Dorothea P. Dutra, Middletown, chairman; for the sophomore "sisters," by Miss Stephanie DeSalva, Somerset, N. J.; and for the freshman capees, by Miss Cynthia Donovan, Weymouth, Mass. A reception in the Court's State Dining Room followed the ceremony.

Salve Regina's Division of Nursing is fully accredited by the Department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs of the National League for Nursing. It offers a four academic year curriculum correlating courses in general education and the liberal arts with professional subjects which include faculty guided laboratory practice in various health agencies and settings.

The Division of Nursing also has National League for Nursing accreditation for their plan whereby graduates of the Associate Degree and Diploma programs are admitted to the accredited baccalaureate degree program.
