Newport, R. I., April 8th 1897

Mr. John Yale,

Dear Sir,

I beg to forward prices to you for painting fences & gates at Mr. Ogden Golet's house, this city, & stables connected with same.

Having carefully gone over the gates this winter, I am convinced from my own personal observation of them, that nothing but the most careful overhauling & the best of material procurable will be of any use on any of the iron-work, consequently I send you my price, allowing for a first class job only.

I agree to give the gates & fences a thorough overhauling, & one (1) good coat of paint, consisting of the best Linseed oil & pure color, for the sum of $235⁰⁰/₁₀₀ (Two hundred & thirty five dollars.)

Yours very truly,

N. Thos. Hodson.
