T H A N K Y O U * * * M R. J A M E S C U N N I N G H A M

We are all finding saying Thank You to Mr. Cunningham, Director of Buildings and Grounds, difficult, because our thank you is really, this time, an acknowledgement that Mr. Cunningham will be leaving the College within the week. During Jim's eight years of service at the College there has not been a person to whom Jim and his staff have not rendered some service. Jim always responded with courtesy no matter how pressed the Maintenance Department was at that moment or how difficult the particular request. Mr. Cunningham has been Salve's Country Doctor, who, day or night, seven days a week, would respond to calls and immediately organize a team to deal with the particular emergency. For your loyal service, which continued to grow with the ever-expanding College, Thank you. Thank You for so many countless kindnesses that could never be recorded. We will all miss Salve's Mr. Cunningham. Thank you for your dedication to The Newport College - Salve Regina and best wishes in your new post at Providencē College.
