FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 1971

The Student Nurse Organization at Salve Regina College will sponsor a first Parents Weekend Saturday and Sunday (May 1 - 2) on campus.

Some 100 parents are expected to participate in a round of activities beginning with a registration social Saturday morning in Ochre Court, and ending with a Mass and brunch Sunday noon.

In the interim there will be campus and Newport tours, a buffet luncheon, boat rides, and a dinner party at the Viking Hotel.

Highlighting the two-day program will be a "Pops Concert" by the College's glee club Saturday evening at 9:00 o'clock in Ochre Court. Under the direction of Glenn Giuttari, Rehoboth, an instructor in creative arts, the 45-voice chorus will demonstrate their virtuosity with renditions of spiritual, contemporary, rock and romantic, and operatic music.

The concert will also feature the "Fanny Allen Sisters," a small harmony ensemble, and a "semi-staging" of the long run Broadway hit, "Fiddler On The Roof."

The latter will be staged by Miss Joan David, assistant professor of English and dramatics at the College, with musical direction by Mr. Giuttari. The company will include a number of Salve Regina students, as well as Rhode Island vocalists and musicians.

Chairman of the Parents Weekend is Miss Roberta Sutherland, a senior nursing student from Somerville, Mass.
