A CHRISTMAS WISH

As we prepare to wish our colleagues a Christmastide of joyous celebration and a 1979 of happiness and success, we can all acknowledge that 1978 has been a good year at The Newport College-Salve Regina and there is much to be grateful for:

GRATITUDE to those who have preceded us for their vision, devotion, and fruitful efforts

GRATITUDE to Sister Lucille for her competence, leadership, and dedication

GRATITUDE to the Trustees for their encouragement and concern

GRATITUDE to the faithful donors for their generosity

GRATITUDE to the administrators for their commitment and energy

GRATITUDE to the staff for their skills and hard work.

GRATITUDE to the students for their vitality and enthusiasm.

We thank each person presently a member of the Salve College Community for: his/her talents, service, interest, love and we ask the Christ child to give us, as our individual needs demand, the grace of laughter, the help of wise counsel, the wisdom to make right choices, the ability to continue expanding our vision and most especially to experience the joy of fruitful service.

A BLESSED CHRISTMAS TO EACH ONE !!

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

The 1978-79 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will carry the names of 20 students from Salve Regina College who have been selected as being among the country's most outstanding campus leaders. These students have been selected based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,000 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934. Congratulations to each of the following students named this year from Salve.

O'HARE FIRE DRILL

The fire drill on Monday, December 11, 1978 from O'Hare Academic Center was carried out with great dispatch and in a very orderly manner. Dr. William Burrell, Dean of Faculty, reported that the building was totally evacuated within two and one half minutes. The cooperation of faculty, staff, and students was excellent. Thank you.

FINANCIAL AID NEWS

The Financial Aid Office reminds all National Direct or Nursing Student Loan borrowers that they must sign for their Spring Semester disbursements before it can be credited to their accounts. Please stop in to the Financial Aid Office, second floor, Ochre Court, before Christmas to sign your loan note and truth-in-lending statement.

Also, 1979-80 financial aid application materials are available through the Financial Aid Office. Be sure to pick yours up before semester break!

FACULTY NEWS

Senator Robert J. McKenna attended a national meeting on Wednesday, December 13, in Washington, DC to discuss measures which State Legislatures can take to slow the national rate of inflation.

The State Legislatures discussed the national anti-inflation effort in such areas as tax policy, business and labor productivity incentives, procurement policy and regulatory reform. The program included presentations by Administration officials, economists and representatives of business and labor. Mr. Jason Boe, President of the National Conference of State Legislatures stated that the meeting was an important first step toward developing policy for the states which will result in a lower national inflation rate.

Dr. Lubomir Gleiman, Professor of Philosophy, has been again selected for the following publications: Who's Who in the East (Marquis), 15th Edition; Directory of American Scholars, 7th Edition, Vol. I: History with Cross-reference in Vol. IV: Philosophy, Religion, Law (Catell Press); Contemporary Authors (Gale); Biographical Directory of the American Political Science Association, 1978. Dr. Gleiman is also a Fellow of L'Institut d'Etudes Medievales, Universite de Montreal and of Instituto Slovaco in Rome. This January Dr. Gleiman is scheduled to deliver a lecture on "What is Political Reality" in the Thomas More Lectures Series at the Thomas More Institute in Montreal.

REGIONAL STUDENT PROGRAM CATALOGS AVAILABLE

John C. Hoy, Executive Director of the New England Board of Higher Education has announced that the New England Regional Student Program catalogs for the 1979-80 academic year have been mailed to all New England high schools, colleges, and academic and public libraries. The New England Regional Student Program provides residents of New England certain of those programs offered by the region's public colleges and universities which are unique, or which are not available at the student's home state institutions. Under the Regional Student Program, the student pays a reduced tuition rate - either the in-state tuition or 25 percent above that amount, depending upon the institution chosen. Regional Student Programs are offered at all levels, from the one-year certificate to the doctoral degree.

New Englanders interested in transferring or admission to graduate programs of study should contact the transfer or admissions department of any public institution or
