Happenings

*at Salve Regina College
Newport, R. I. . 847-6650*

APRIL 10 - APRIL 19

Vol. I, No. 2

Published every Thursday during the academic year, except for holidays and vacations, by the Office of Development and Public Relations. Deadline for all copy is Tuesday noontime. News of general interest to the college community is earnestly requested so that Happenings can be a comprehensive preview of what's new and what's coming on campus.

KUDOS

Pamela Sweeney '70 has been selected as one of Glamour Magazine's Top Ten College Girls. As a winner in the highly competitive nationwide search, Pam will be photographed on campus this month, be featured in August's college issue of Glamour, and be given a 10-day all expense paid trip to a foreign country.

The education department has unanimously elected Denise Lajoie '71 recipient of the Teacher College, Columbia University Book Award, according to an announcement by Dr. E. William Burrell, department chairman.

Dr. Lester Carr, vice president for academic affairs, has been named to the Board of Directors of New Visions for Newport County--an organization concerned with a variety of community action programs in the Newport area.

Mrs. Catherine E. Graziano of the nursing division has been appointed to the State Board of Nurse Registration and Nursing Education.

HERE

Sister Mary Christopher, Salve Regina president, was the main speaker at the AHEPA banquet held on the anniversary of Greek Independence from Turkey. Her topic was "Greek Culture, Its Integration into American Life, and the Many Meanings of Freedom." The organization presented Sister a vase recently brought from Greece and now on display in the lobby of Ochre Court.

The Urban Affairs Council sponsored a film and discussion on campus with Paul McNeil of the R. I. Grape Boycott Committee.

Dr. Michael E. Werle of the psychology department has trained five Newport elementary school teachers to lead a series of eight weekly afternoon discussions on intergroup relations. This curriculum was developed at Tufts University's Lincoln Filene Center for Citizenship and Public Affairs.

THERE

Sister Prudence M. Croke, Mr. Warren Harrington, Rev. Richard Manderville, and Sister M. Jeannette Pivin, all from the theology department, attended the College Theology Society convention at the Sheraton-Boston Hotel. Sister Prudence presided at one of the sessions concerning the college teacher and the National Council of Churches.

Mrs. Georgette V. Ramos, Sister M. Helen Boland, Mrs. Arlette Hopkins and Mr. Edward Van Vliet, all of the French department, attended the Northeast Conference for Teaching of Foreign Languages at the Statler-Hilton in Boston. Panel discussions, lectures, and film presentations amplified the conference theme: "Motivation in Foreign Language Teaching and Study."
