MAY 1 - MAY 10

Vol. I, No. 5

Published every Thursday during the academic year, except for holidays and vacations, by the Office of Development and Public Relations. Deadline for all copy is Tuesday, noontime. News of general interest to the college community is earnestly requested so that Happenings can be a comprehensive preview of what's new and what's coming on campus.

KUDOS

Delta Epsilon Sigma, National Catholic Scholastic Honor Society for students, faculty, and alumni of Catholic colleges and universities, has 12 new members from Salve Regina College who were inducted recently into our Delta Alpha chapter. They are: Emilia M. Antonio, Barbara M. Carrillo, Cynthia E. Field, Kathleen E. Gemske, Linda A. Kane, Susan J. Marcotte, Sister Elena Marie Natalizia, R.S.M., Patricia A. Parisi, Monette M. Rivet, Lidia Marie Teixeira, Barbara J. Thomson, and Zora A. Turnbull. The new members were addressed by: Catherine Pratte, President, Delta Alpha Chapter, Catherine Barbaria, and Sister Margaret Sorensen, Associate Academic Dean.

Student leaders for the class of 1971 have been elected. They are: Margaret McGahan, President; Marianne Reavey, Vice President; Paula Keene, Secretary; and Noreen Senff, Treasurer. Student Congress representatives are Mary Anne Tierney and Patricia Dwyer, while the Social Committee will have Susan Patry as class chairman and Kathleen Bayer and Elizabeth Klivak as representatives.

HERE

The Chemical Aspects of Environment on Aquidneck Island were investigated in a campus group discussion headed by Lee Gardner of the Norman Bird Sanctuary, Middletown. Some 200 high school students were invited to participate in the conference held in the O'Hare Academic Center as a follow-up to Earth Day activities at the College.

With plans underway for the launching of the Hope Center Program in the fall, a committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Lester Carr, vice president for academic affairs, is evaluating student applications for residency at the Center. The committee includes Sister Sheila, dean of women; Miss Lucy Ann Shannon, assistant dean of women; Dr. William Burrell, chairman of the education department; and Miss Ann-Marie Keenan of the sociology department, as well as the following students: Stephanie Bowler, Nan Champion, and Eileen Janiga. The thirty successful applicants will be announced in May.

THERE

Sister Mary Christopher, Salve Regina president, and Dr. Carr were participants in a panel discussion on "Health Manpower Concerns in the State's Colleges and Universities." The discussion was a special feature of the annual dinner meeting of the Health Division of the Rhode Island Council of Community Services which was held at the Wannamoisett Country Club, East Providence.

Ronald C. Brinn, vice president for development and public relations, served as conference coordinator when more than 200 New England District members of the American College Public Relations Association met in Hyannisport for three days of workshops, seminars, and general sessions on the theme of "New Directions for a New Decade."

Miss Helen R. Holland of the art department will attend the New England Renaissance Conference at Dartmouth College, Hanover, N.H., May 8-9.
