Happenings

File
at Salve Regina College
Newport, R. I. . 847-6650

MAY 15 - MAY 25

Vol. I, No. 7

Published every Thursday during the academic year, except for holidays and vacations, by the Office of Development and Public Relations. Deadline for all copy is Tuesday noontime. News of general interest to the college community is earnestly requested so that Happenings can be a comprehensive preview of what's new and what's coming on campus.

KUDOS

Mrs. Roberta A. Manchester of the math department has been named "Outstanding Young Educator" by the Bristol Jr. Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Manchester, who will participate in a University of Illinois Project involving math for the slow learner, has also received a Title I Federal Grant to conduct a six-week summer project (G. R. A. S. P.) in math and science.

The following students have been elected officers of the Salve Regina College Glee Club for 1970-71: Mary Ellen Lange '71, president; Patricia Maurano '72, vice president; Donna Marie Milne '73, secretary; Zora Ann Turnbull '71, treasurer; Mary Jean McCarthy '71 and Kathleen M. Gotha '73, librarians.

HERE

Dr. Lester Carr, vice president for academic affairs, was among several speakers who addressed the three-day Northeastern States Northwestern University Traffic Institute Graduate Seminar, held at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge, Middletown. Dr. Carr's topic was "Youth, Police, and the Establishment."

Psychology majors and members of the Psychology Club recently held a clambake at Second Beach, Middletown. Present and prospective members of the department faculty also attended. This was the third such get-together held this year for the department's faculty and students.

THERE

Mrs. Catherine E. Graziano, assistant professor of nursing, recently returned from Miami Beach where she attended the week-long Biennial Convention of the Association of American Nurses. Meeting to discuss the goals and directions of the professional nurse, the Association also examined the role of student nurses on college campuses today. Significant discussions included the role of nursing in the future, the changing of roles to meet society's needs, and the education process.

Dr. Patricia J. Fontes, assistant professor and chairman of the psychology department, will be attending the Annual Conference of the Association for Educational Data Systems in Miami Beach from May 13-15.

Sister Marie Therese, R. S. M. and Miss Juliet Louistro of the library attended the Spring Conference of the Rhode Island Library Association in Tiverton, Rhode Island, to discuss recent developments in library science.
