WEEK OF NOVEMBER 16 - 22, 1969

---

Welcome home, to Sister Mary Christopher, President, who has returned to the college after her journey to the Mercy Missions in Honduras and Central America. Her visit brought to the Missions news and interpretations of the workings of the recent Chapter of Affairs for Community renewal. It also gave Sister an opportunity to spread the good news about the college.

The 1969 General Assembly of the Rhode Island Legislature passed a bill providing for the first time for the certification of psychologists in the State of Rhode Island. Dr. Lester Carr, Chairman of our Psychology Department, has been appointed by Governor Licht to serve on the three member board that will be responsible for overseeing and carrying out the certification of Rhode Island psychologists effective immediately.

Mrs. Catherine Graziano, R.N., assistant professor in the School of Nursing was recently elected President of the Rhode Island State Nurses' Association at the organization's annual meeting.

The Registrar's office has moved to the former general office on the second floor of Ochre Court. Sister Philemon, Registrar, stated there will be a housewarming, time to be announced.

Robert J. McKenna, Assistant Professor of Political Science and a member of the R. I. State Legislature will be on WJAR 920 "Open Line" on Tuesday, November 18th, 6:30 to 7:30 P.M. The discussion will center on Representative McKenna's new commission to study the feasibility of extending the school year.

A study of all Salve Regina College graduates is being made this month. To date, we have responses from every class. These include residents of twenty-five states, Japan, Hawaii, Belgium, Ontario, and the Virgin Islands.

Dr. Patricia Fontes and eight students from the psychology department attended the annual meeting of the New England Psychological Association in Boston on November 8 and 9. The panel presentations were on Youth and The Establishment and Problems for the Acceleration of Language Development.
