student teaching and department requirements. Any students with questions regarding departmental policies and requirements are encouraged to contact Diane Lowe (Ext. 341) and Kathleen Callahan (Ext. 294).

ATTENTION FACULTY

The National Endowment for the Humanities is offering a workshop in continuing humanities education. The workshop will be in Cleveland, Ohio in April. The workshop is designed to assist institutions in developing their own humanities program. Twenty colleges from the Northeast will be selected to participate. Institutions selected will send a three or four member team comprised of administrators and faculty members. Faculty members interested should contact the Dean of Faculty's office. Deadline for submitting applications is December 14, 1979.

MEETING OF ARCHIVISTS

S. Mary Smith, the College Archivist, will attend the Annual Meeting of the Society of American Archivists to be held at the Palmer House in Chicago, Ill. September 24-29, 1979. Sister serves on the International Archival Affairs Committee.

The Society's membership of over 4,000 includes persons serving Federal and State Government, academic institutions, businesses, churches, and professional associations. Although the Society's geographic base is the U.S. and Canada, members in 60 other countries make the Society an international organization.

The Archival organization serves its profession in a number of ways. Through its publications program, annual meetings, symposia, workshops, and committee activities. The Society provides a means for contact, communication, and cooperation among Archivists and archival institutions. The Society advances professional education and training, offers placement services, supports research dealing with major archival problems and represents archivists in areas involving related professions.

DEPARTMENT CHAIRMAN APPOINTED

Dr. William Burrell, Vice President/Dean of Faculty, is pleased to announce that Dr. Lubomir Gleiman, Professor of Philosophy, has been named Chairman of the combined Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies.

For purposes of scheduling courses, the two academic disciplines will continue to be listed separately, but for administrative purposes the two areas will function under the leadership of one chairman.

Dr. Gleiman was asked to assume the chairmanship of the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies since his scholarship and experience bridge both areas.

SILVER JUBILEE

The College Community wishes Brother John Buckley, F.S.C. prayerful congratulations on the occasion of his silver jubilee of profession on Saturday, September 22, 1979. Brother John will be celebrating his silver jubilee at LaSalle Military Academy in Oakdale, Long Island. Sister Lucille McKillop and Sister Sheila Meglĕy will be joining Brother on this occasion as well as other Salve representatives.

CONGRATULATIONS

Professor John F. McCormack of the Department of Criminal Justice has been appointed to the Northeastern Association of Criminal Justice Educators as the State Representative from Rhode Island. He will serve on the Board of Directors of the Northeastern University Association of Criminal Justice Educators.

SPORTS SCENE

Women's Varsity Tennis

The women's first tennis match this season is Saturday, September 22 at Cape Cod Community College at 1:00 p.m. The next tennis match will be Home against Roger Williams College on September 26 at 3:00 p.m.

Men's Varsity Soccer

Bruce Smith, a freshman, scored three goals and Paul Kielbara, a junior, scored one goal as they led Salve Regina to a 4 - 0 victory over Annhurst College last Saturday. Anna Maria College will not be able to play Salve Regina College on September 22. That will be an open date.

Help Needed

Anyone interested in being score keepers or timers for varsity athletic events, please contact the Athletic Department at extension 329.

BLOOD DRIVE THANK YOU

College Helath Services would like to express gratitude to all who generously donated blood. Fifty-two pints were realized. The thoughtfulness and assistance of Miss Diane Caplin, Miss Hillman and the R.A.s, and the eight students who served refreshments were appreciated.

PERSONAL SAFETY

Many students have been observed walking in the street while going to and from classes. This is a very dangerous practice. Students are reminded to utilize the side walks and cross walks. "The Life You Save May Be Your Own."

PARKING REGULATIONS

All members of the Faculty, Staff and student body shall be required to register their vehicle with the college security department to obtain a Salve Regina College parking decal. College security shall have the authority to have towed any vehicle not having proper Salve Regina College identification. Mutilated decals replaced on request.

"Diagonal Parking" is not authorized on the streets adjacent to the campus unless marked. All vehicles in violation of city parking regulations will be tagged by the Newport Police Department.

The traffic pattern is "ONE WAY" within the area of Angelus, McAuley Hall and O'Hare Academic Center. Traffic to the academic area may enter at the west end of Marion Hall and exit at the south end of Gatehouse onto Ochre Point Avenue.

The parking area at Angelus and Marion Hall is reserved for resident students of McAuley Hall. Faculty members with offices located in Angelus Hall may park on Shepard Avenue.

CAMPUS NOTES

Berkshire Foliage Festival

With the cooperation of Paragon Tours, the College is offering students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to take the tour entitled "Berkshire Foliage Festival." The trip includes transportation, overnight accommodations at the Berkshire Hilton, two main meals, tours of the Mohawk Trail, Hancock Shaker Village, and Norman Rockwell's Old Corner House Museum. The bus will leave campus on Saturday morning, September 29, and return on Sunday evening, September 30. The cost to the Salve community is $70. For further details or reservation information, please contact the Office of Student Activities as soon as possible.

Regina Maris

There will be a meeting for the staff of the 1980 Regina Maris on Wednesday, September 26, at 10:45 a.m. in O'Hare. The agenda includes senior portraits, advertisement solicitation, and selling of yearbooks. All interested persons are welcome.

Salve Regina College Prayer Group

The prayer group will meet Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. in the Drawing Room. All students are welcome.

Concert

On Tuesday, October 2, The Town Hall Trio will give a concert of chamber music at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. They will perform works by Mozart, Brahms, and Glinka. Barbara Barstow (violinist) and Shirley Adams (cellist) are members of the Rhode Island Symphony. Catherine Carver Burton, a highly regarded pianist, has performed many times in the Newport area.

Telephone Directory

The Telephone Directory for the 1979-80 Academic year was distributed last week to all campus locations. The Office of Public Information would be very grateful to be kept informed if there are any changes or corrections to be made. Please take a minute to check your listing. Thank you.

Attention College Community

The College Switchboard is open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Persons using an outside line close to 5:00 p.m. should be aware that the operator cannot close off the board until all outside calls are finished.

Bookstore Notice

The Bookstore now carries a full line of Health and Beauty Aids at discount prices. For the convenience of the nursing students the store now stocks white pantyhose and bobby pins. The store also sells stamps and offers a complete photo processing service. Check at the bookstore for time and prices.

Bus Schedules

Local Bus Schedules are available at the following locations on campus: Miley Reception Desk, O'Hare Faculty Secretaries' Office, Ochre Court Switchboard and Office of Public Information.
