All notices for the weekly bulletin must be received in the Public Relations Office by 12 noon Wednesday.

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 30 - DECEMBER 6

Sister Mary Christopher, R. S. M., President, has received a $300 library grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. The presentation was made by Mr. John Pelletier, manager of the Sears store in the Aquidneck Shopping Center.

The Rhode Island Chapter of Kappa Gamma Pi will hold a panel discussion on "What is the Future of Private Higher Education in Rhode Island" on Saturday, December 6th, 10:30 A. M. at Salve. Acting as Chairman will be Representative George A. Newbury, member of the Rhode Island State Legislature and Chairman of the legislative commission studying the state scholarship program. Governor Frank Licht will be present to bring the greetings of the State to the members of Kappa Gamma Pi and their guests. Other panel members include: Mr. Thomas H. Suddath, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, and President of the Federation of State Associations and Mrs. Helen Mathieu, Education Chairman, Rhode Island Chapter, Kappa Gamma Pi.

Invitations have been sent to all Presidents, Treasurers, and Development Directors of Rhode Island's Independent Colleges. Sister Mary Alban, Academic Dean, and Mr. Robert McKenna, Assistant Professor of Political Science, are coordinating the program at the college.

The Newport Chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a performance, to benefit the men in the armed forces in Viet Nam and in hospitals, on December 13th at 8:00 P. M. at the Rogers High School Auditorium. The program will feature Miss Joanne Castle, widely known for her association with the Lawrence Welk Show and Mr. Chuck Garrity of Newport. Advance tickets are $14.00 a pair and can be obtained by calling Mrs. Kelly at 847-6661 or 847-1786. Tickets purchased at the door will be $20.00 a pair.

Mr. Richard McGinn, Associate Dean, will attend a meeting of the Special Committee on Social Work Education at the Biltmore Hotel on Tuesday, December 2. This committee is studying the feasibility of setting up a school of Social Work in Rhode Island. Mr. McGinn will also attend a regional meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools on December 4 and 5 in Boston. The main speaker at this meeting will be Senator Edmund Muskie.

Sister Mary Marjorie, R. S. M., Director of Placement, has announced the following Recruiters on campus for this week. Interviews will be held in the Placement Office between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M.
