participated in this winter's annual ring ceremony at Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I.

The junior class event, which was held in the College's Ochre Court, commenced traditional ring weekend activities at Mount Snow, East Dover, Vermont.

The ring ceremony, under the direction of Ann Campion, Waterbury, Conn.; Janet Gargaro, Providence, R. I.; and Geraldine McLaughlin, Brockton, Mass., included the presentation of the class rings by Sister Mary Consiliii Reynolds, R.S.M., assistant professor in history and class moderator; and a message to the class by Sister Mary Christopher, R.S.M., president. Chaplain Carl Auel, dean of continuing education, presented the principal address. A reception for the class and their guests followed.
