THIS STORY HAS YOUR LOCAL ANGLE

Members of the Salve Regina College Glee Club, accompanied by Mr. Glenn Giuttari, club director, will depart Wednesday (April 5) for Washington, D. C. to begin the 1972 spring tour.

During its five-day tour the chorus will appear at Walter Reed Army Hospital, the Old Senate Office Building, the Veterans Administration Hospital, National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, and Marymount Junior College.

Selections for the concerts, ranging from pops to liturgical, will include: - "Missa Erevis" by Benjamin Britten, "Emily Dickinson Mosaic" by Daniel Pinkham, two pieces by Marc Antoine Charpentier, and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Sister Mary Lomax, R.S. M., instructor of music at the College and Glee Club accompanist, will also be a member of the touring group.
