AN EVENING OF CHRISTIAN RENEWAL FOR STUDENTS

What does being Christian mean in today's society?

Do I make space for the Lord in my life today and every day?

How can I live out my Christian commitment, that of being "called and sent," in the 1980's?

On Thursday, January 31, from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. in Ochre Court the members of the Christian Life Series Committee invite all to share in a discussion of these topics and more with Father Tom Tobin. Father is a Holy Cross Father from North Dartmouth, Massachusetts. He will lead the discussion and celebrate liturgy for this evening of Christian Renewal. All are invited to join in this evening. For further information, contact Ms. Karen Dobson, Extension 302.

LECTURE ON WORLD SITUATION AND THE DRAFT

Dr. Robert Delaney, former Adjunct Professor of International Management at Salve Regina and noted author of books and articles on International Affairs, will address the College Community on "Iran, Afghanistan, Registration for Selective Service and You" at 8:00 p.m. Monday, February 4, in O'Hare Auditorium.

The present world crisis and Presidential statements make this informative lecture of great importance to all.

ATTENDS WASHINGTON MEETINGS

Sister Lucille McKillop is attending a series of meetings in Washington, DC. She will be attending meetings of the Board of Directors of American Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities and The Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges. She will attend the Audit Committee meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities. Sister Lucille is Chairperson of the Presidents' Council of the Mercy Higher Education Conference which will meet on February 2.

Sister Lucille and Sister Sheila Megley will attend the National Congress on Church Related Colleges and Universities on February 2.

CONSIDERED FOR FULBRIGHT GRANT

Joyce Kubinec, a senior majoring in Political Science, has received the endorsement of the Institute of International Education National Screening Committee for consideration for a Fulbright Travel Grant and Polish Government Grant. This is the first step in acquiring a grant. Her application will now be reviewed by the Board of Foreign Scholarships. Their decision will be announced in May.

Joyce hopes for a career in the United States Diplomatic Service. Her project for the grant will be a study of the effect of enemy occupation on the business contracts of the occupied nation. Specifically, she wishes to study the effect of the Nazi occupation of Poland on the contracts of its business firms with outside countries such as France and Italy.

RECEIVES SPRING INTERNSHIP

Lewis Bower, a senior majoring in Political Science, has received a Spring Internship with the Aquidneck Island Development Corporation. Congratulations to Lewis.

CONGRATULATIONS

Sister Mary Giles Peresich, Catalogue Librarian, has received her Master of Arts in Liberal Studies from New York University. The degree was awarded this Fall. Sister Giles already possesses a Master in Library Science from George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville. Our congratulations to Sister Mary Giles.

FACULTY SENATE

The Faculty Senate requests input for and/or attendance at the February 6 meeting regarding contracts and health benefits. The meeting is at 10:30 a.m. in O'Hare 260. Note the corrected time.

THANK YOU

On behalf of College Health Services, Sister Rosalind thanks all the generous donors who gave blood on January 23. Forty pints were credited to the College. Thank you.

ANTHROPOLOGY CLASS DISPLAY

Reproductions of Indian artifacts are currently on display in O'Hare Lobby. These works have been made by the students in Native American Anthropology, a course offered last semester by Dr. Elaine Mayer. Larger objects that would not fit inside the display window can be seen in Room 202, Angelus. Please feel free to come in and browse.

SAFETY NOTE

Walking in the street to or from class is very dangerous. Fifty-nine people were injured while walking along or upon a roadway in the city of Newport during 1979. A majority of those injured were in the age group of 15 to 34.

The state law of Rhode Island (31-18-10) states: "Where sidewalks are provided it shall be unlawful for any pedestrian to walk along and upon an adjacent roadway." Students are requested to please use the sidewalks when going to or returning from classes. LIFE IS PRECIOUS; PRESERVE IT.

SRC PRAYER GROUP

Tuesdays 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Drawing Room, Ochre Court

EVERYONE IS WELCOME.

LITURGY NOTICE

The sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) is available after the Noon liturgy each Wednesday.
